U.S. Plea Against Firing of Big Bomb Hopes to Rally Anti-Kremlin Opinion

Showdown Is Due on Cease-Fire

Warning Is Given About Challenge

By TOM HOGG

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —Harried United Nations officials trying to function without a secretary-general face a showdown over the U. N. Congo command's cease-fire agreement with break-away Katanga Province.

Both the Soviet Union and the central Congo government warned they would challenge any attempt by the secretariat to ratify the agreement. President Moise Tshombe's Katanga government refused to release 134 U. N. soldiers it is holding prisoner until the secretariat approved the true pact.

Accuses Congo Command

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin accused the U. N. Congo command Tuesday of bypassing the Security Council by agreeing on a cease-fire and threatening to take the issue before the council. He demanded that the U. N. Congo force take action to end Katanga's secession from the rest of the Congo.

Congo Foreign Minister Justin Bomboso called a news conference and denounced the cease-fire as blackmail by Katanga President Moise Tshombe's regime. Bomboso hinted his government would seek Soviet aid to smash Tshombe's regime unless the U. N. acted against him.

Trust May Vanish

The Congo diplomat said that if the cease-fire is ratified by the secretariat, "the trust we put in the United Nations may vanish."

The Katanga issue raised the first real crisis since Dag Hammarskjöld was killed in a plane crash. It underlined the need for an interim secretary-general to make top-level decisions. Informed sources said top secretariat officials were wary of ratifying the cease-fire agreement for fear of incurring the wrath of both the Soviet bloc and the Congo government.

Western diplomats predicted that if the agreement were ratified, the Russians would go before the Security Council and challenge the action as an illegal seizure of power by secretariat officials.

No Excuse, He Says

In a letter to Council President Turgut Menemencioglu of Turkey, Zorin declared that now that a central government has been

17-State Alarm Out for Missile Security Officer

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP) — Police in 17 states today sought the chief security officer for General Dynamics Corp. at Plattsburgh Air Force Base, who disappeared Sunday.

Philip C. Marsh, 45, left home about noon Sunday to buy some beer, his wife told police.

State Police said Marsh had a "nervous condition and was in a dazed state of mind."

Marsh was in charge of security for the installation of electrical and electronic equipment at the 12 Atlas Missile sites that will ring Plattsburgh, a Strategic Air Command base.

The installation work will begin when the massive concrete silos in which the missiles will be stored before firing, are completed.

General Dynamics is the parent company of Convair, which builds the intercontinental ballistic missiles. The giant weapons are capable of carrying nuclear warheads.

Marsh lived at Champlain Park, RFD 2, Plattsburgh. When last seen, he was wearing a red shirt and khaki trousers.

State Police sent out the 17-state alarm after Marsh's wife reported his disappearance.

The missing man, described as 6 feet tall, weighing 190 pounds and with black, curly hair and brown eyes, was driving a red convertible.

Good Reports Given On Fire Prevention

Fire Prevention Week in Ulster County was a real success, due largely to the work of the firemen of the city and county. During the week many of the volunteer fire companies held open house and school children were guests of several fire companies, where the importance of fire prevention was stressed as the youngsters were given a first hand look at Ulster's fire fighting apparatus and told of its use.

Meeting at Highland Tuesday night, the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association was guest of Highland Hose where 36 companies were represented.

President Oscar Lambert presided at the business meeting at which time reports were received from chiefs on the activities of their departments during Fire Prevention Week.

Explains About 'Alert'

James Hicks, chairman of the Fire Prevention Week committee, gave a report of the week's activities, as did former Kingston Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, co-chairman.

Winfred Snyder of Hurley, Ulster County fire coordinator also gave a report and explained the reason for the county-wide alert which was sounded last week when aid was being summoned for a fire at Blue Mountain.

Snyder stated that the general alert was the result of "technical difficulties" and it was explained that a button at the control center was "down" when the system was activated and had failed to return to normal position. The result was most of the fire sirens in the county were activated.

It was announced a meeting of the board of directors would be held at Port Jervis on Tuesday, October 24, at 8 p. m. when a Civil Defense commissioner would be present.

To Attend Demonstration

Attention was also called to the trip to Yaphank, L. I., on Sunday, October 22, where a fire demonstration will be put on at the fire training center. The bus will leave the Pine Hill-Kingston Bus terminal at Clinton Avenue and Cedar Street at 7:15 a. m. and a half hour later from New Paltz.

Edward Martin of St. Remy was elected a member of the association.

The next meeting of the association will be at Saugerties when the association will be the guest of Saugerties firemen, meeting at the Saugerties Municipal Building.

Many Gave Help

In presenting his report on Fire Prevention Week activities, Chairman James Hicks, stated that since he had been confined to the hospital by illness during the period of preparation he had been given able assistance by numerous volunteers.

Robert A. Waddell of Tillson had gathered the material and had made it available to the fire companies and schools and Hicks stated that Waddell had been very ably assisted by Co-chairman Joseph L. Murphy. Others who gave much assistance in the distribution of the materials to schools were George Garrison of Ellenville; Robert McMullen of Marlborough; Ralph Castano of Highland; Ray Morris of New Paltz; Harold Maier of Ontario; Earl Martin of Saugerties; John Washburn of Wallkill; Harry Lowe of Ulster No. 5; Oscar Lambert of Esopus.

Among the activities held during Fire Prevention Week was a drill at the Mother Cabrini School at West Park. President Oscar Lambert of the Esopus Fire Department reported the

Expulsion Ruled for Algerians

3 Dead, 77 Hurt In Paris Battle

PARIS (AP)—The French government decided today to expel 1,500 Algerians swept up in Tuesday night's curfew rioting, and said this is only the start of a giant weeding-out process.

Three persons were killed and 77 injured seriously in bloody battling between police and the Moslem North Africans protesting a curfew imposed on them. The dead were two Algerians and an unidentified European. Thirteen policemen were among the injured.

11,538 Arrested

Riot squads arrested 11,538 Algerians from among about 20,000 who boiled out in the streets.

It was announced that 1,500 would be returned to Algeria within 48 hours. As identity checks continue, others are to be expelled.

The curfew, imposed to cut down on Algerian attacks on police and warfare between rival Algerian gangs, brought a call for the demonstration from the rebel FLN—National Liberation Front.

It was heeded in proportions which showed a broad and insistent support of the rebel government in its seven-year fight to break French rule in Algeria.

The curfew calls for Algerians to be off the streets by midnight and for all bars catering to them to close by 7 p. m. The demonstrations underlined the massive solidarity of the tens of thousands of Algerians in the Paris region with the rebel government.

Algerian men, women and children poured from subway stations, buildings and side streets in various quarters of the city.

Many Knocked to Pavement

Riot-tested police split them up in club-swinging charges that beat many to the pavements. Police packed big vans and city buses with those arrested. They were taken to substations for a check of identity papers.

Those who cannot show valid identification will be sent back to Algeria, a policy police began when fighting between opposing

Dual Jobholders Are Not Hurting Others, Report

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Workers holding down several jobs are not robbing fellow toilers of a chance to earn a living, the Labor Department suggested today.

It made public a new survey on the prevalence and characteristics of dual jobholding—or moonlighting as it is commonly called.

Over three million persons, or 4.6 per cent of all those employed in the country held more than one job when the survey was taken in December, 1960. This means nearly one out of 20 held second jobs.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said, however, that the number and proportion of dual jobholders has not been increasing in recent years. Also, it was

Lions to Hold Exposition April 10 to 14

Dates for the Kingston Lion's 1962 Industrial Exposition and Home Show have been tentatively set for April 10 through April 14, according to Lion vice-president S. E. Munson.

The event is held at the New York State Armory on Manor Avenue and will be the 15th annual exposition for the club.

In announcing the date for the 1962 exposition, Vice-president Munson stated that the donation of $2,250 to the Ulster County Community Chest by the Kingston Lions Club is but one of the many projects the Lions Club was able to participate in as a result of the success of last year's Industrial Exposition.

Attended by 17,000 Last year's fund from the show also enabled the Kingston Lions Club to establish a scholarship at the New Paltz State Teachers College for a Kingston student and to equip a physiotherapy room at Kingston Hospital, among other things.

Munson also urged potential exhibitors to set aside the date of April 10 through April 14, realizing the effectiveness and successfulness of past expositions.

Last year's exposition was the most successful to date, drawing an attendance of almost 17,000 people.

DeGaulle, Mac to Meet

LONDON (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle of France has agreed to meet Prime Minister Macmillan in London, probably late in November for talks on world affairs. British informants said today. Their meeting will be the occasion for a frank examination of differences in their approach to the question of Berlin and Germany.

Berlin GIs Begin Test of Readiness

BERLIN (AP) — Nearly half West Berlin's 6,500-man U.S. garrison rolled out today for a three-day test of combat readiness.

Tanks rumbled through the streets at daybreak, followed by armored personnel carriers packed with steel-helmeted troops.

Go to Forest Sector

There was a cold fall wind under blue skies as the columns wheeled out of their barracks and headed for the Grunewald Forest, in the American sector southwest of the city proper, where the mock battles will be staged.

Berliners on their way to work waved to the Americans, who grinned and waved back, especially at the girls. An Army spokesman emphasized that the war games—dubbed Ever Ready II—were planned for July, well ahead of the Communist closure of the East Berlin border Aug. 13.

Approximately 3,000 men are taking part under the overall leadership of Brig. Gen. Frederick O. Hartel, the U.S. commander in Berlin.

Delay One Test

The purpose of the major fall exercise is to practice attack and delay against an aggressor, to test the troops' ability to hold off an invading force until help can come from West Germany.

Taking part in the maneuvers are the 2nd and 3rd Battle Groups of the 6th U.S. Infantry division. Col. John R. Deane Jr. commands the 2nd, Col. Wayne M. Winder the 3rd Battle Group. Since the Berlin wall went up Aug. 13 the U. S. garrison has been augmented by an additional battle group from West Germany, but it is not involved in the maneuvers.

Gen. Hartel said Ever Ready II will emphasize squad and platoon tactics in offense and defense. It will be a two-sided free maneuver, apparently with the red and blue sides alternating in attack and repulse.

Almost the entire range of army armor and weapons in Berlin will be brought into action. There will also be an amphibious exercise. Air operations by helicopters are also planned.

Today was set aside for the units to take up positions. The simulated fighting starts Thursday.

Ike's Statement On 130 Jets for Slavs Helps Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower may have taken some of the steam out of the heated controversy that has rumbled over the U. S. sale of 130 surplus jet fighter planes to Communist Yugoslavia.

Ike declared Tuesday that the transaction was "in the best interests of the United States."

Eisenhower and the White House agreed that the former chief executive had not personally briefed President Kennedy on the plane deal. But the White House said military aides of the two had gone over the matter. There had been published reports that Eisenhower personally had given Kennedy information on the purchase agreement during the changeover of administrations.

The White House said the sale

$500 Reward Is Offered To Catch Three in Holdup

Armored Carrier Corp. of Flushing, L. I. whose messenger, Alfred Szurek, 34, of Amsterdam, was the victim of a holdup at the junction of Route 212 and 32 in Saugerties Monday night, Oct. 9, today offered a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the holdup men.

State police already have arrested one man in connection with the holdup of Szurek who was wounded in the leg during the incident.

Max Cohen, 30, of Woodridge, L. I. is out on $10,000 bail imposed by Justice of Peace Herbert Poppel of Wawarsing when Cohen was arraigned before him on a charge of robbery first degree. State police say he provided the pistol used in the holdup.

According to Senior Investigator Edward Shannon, Szurek said one of three thugs shot him in the right leg and took two bags of canceled checks representing more than $2 million. The non-negotiable checks, used only for bookkeeping purposes, had been collected by Szurek from banks in Schenectady, Scotia and Albany. He was waiting at a point near the Saugerties Thruway interchange for another messenger to pick up the checks when the holdup occurred. Szurek said one of the trio shot him in the fleshy part of the leg as he grappled with the man, eventually wresting a .22 caliber target pistol from him. He said the men fled in a car parked nearby and he emptied the pistol at them in a vain attempt to halt the vehicle. Szurek went to the nearby Cloverleaf Inn where state police and an ambulance were called. He was taken to Kingston Hospital for treatment and later removed to St. Mary's Hospital in Amsterdam.

Socialist Victory Sure Thing: Khrush

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev told the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress today that the downfall of imperialism and the triumph of socialism on a world scale are inevitable.

The Soviet premier took the rostrum at the second session of the congress to discuss the massive new party program—its first since 1919 — which the Kremlin claims will make communism supreme and irresistibly attractive to the rest of the world by 1980.

Best for Mankind

Khrushchev told the more than 4,000 delegates in the new Kremlin Palace of Congresses that the experience of a large group of countries had confirmed that the socialist system inevitably replaces the capitalist system.

Imperialism — the standard Communist term for Western capitalism—has irretrievably lost its hold on the bulk of the world's peoples, he declared, asserting that socialism is the main avenue along which mankind advances.

In the Soviet Union, he continued, socialism has been translated into reality and this 22nd party congress will go down in history as the congress of the builders of communism.

The premier said the Soviet people's living conditions have been radically altered as a result of these "colossal transformations" — that unemployment had been wiped out long ago, workers' real wages have risen 480 per cent, and the real incomes of the peasants have risen more than 500 per cent.

Three Great Factors

Khrushchev listed what he called three historical factors of the 20th century.

"The formation of the world socialist system is the principal result of the progressive development of society in our epoch," he declared.

"The crumbling of the colonial system is the second in historical significance among the results of world development.

"The third result of world development is an acute all-around weakening of capitalism and a

N. Y. Areas Move Toward U.S. Aid on Unemployment

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York communities apparently are wasting little time setting the wheels in motion toward obtaining possible federal aid to fight chronic unemployment.

Although only one of the state's nine eligible unemployment areas has applied thus far for federal money under the area redevelopment program, three others have moved in that direction.

Earlier this year the Area Redevelopment Agency designated 9 of New York's 18 areas of substantial unemployment eligible for help under the program.

Auburn (Cayuga County) has applied for money for two projects, and Gloversville (Fulton County) may file a formal application for money anytime it wants. Over-all economic development plans of both communities have won area approval.

Amsterdam (Montgomery County) and Jamestown - Dunkirk (Chautauque County) have submitted their economic plans to the agency for study.

Approval of a community's plan for economic development must be obtained before a depressed area can ask for money.

Under the program the govern-

Says Test Not Vital For Data

Rusk Aides Study Text of Red Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has asked the Soviet Union to reconsider its decision to explode a 50-megaton nuclear bomb, charging that the test would be unnecessary and could "only serve some unfocused political purpose."

U. S. Has Knowhow

It said the United States had the materials and know-how to produce bombs in the 50-100 megaton range—and higher—but that such weapons are not essential to U. S. military needs and that full-scale tests are not necessary to develop them.

Assistant press secretary Andrew T. Hatcher said today the White House has received no reaction from the Soviet Union to its stand.

A 130-word statement was handed to newsmen Tuesday night by press secretary Pierre Salinger, who said it should be attributed to the White House and not to President Kennedy personally.

The statement was the only official U. S. comment so far on Premier Khrushchev's announcement Tuesday that the Soviet Union would explode a 50-megaton weapon at the end of this month. A 50-megaton blast is equivalent to the force of 30 million tons of TNT and about 2,500 times more powerful than the U. S. atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima.

U. S. strategists hoped the White House statement, citing the lack of military purpose for such a test, would rally world opinion against the Kremlin.

Lure and Threat

From a diplomatic standpoint, Khrushchev's Moscow speech was seen as combining the carrot on a stick technique with the flick of a whip—mixing the lure of negotiations over Berlin while brandishing a mammoth nuclear threat.

A task force of State Department experts—including the U. S. ambassador to Moscow, Llewellyn E. Thompson—gathered to scrutinize all available textual matter to weigh the significance of what Khrushchev said, and what he didn't say.

The State Department said there would be no official assessment of the speech until Secretary of State Dean Rusk holds his press conference late this afternoon.

Reserve Enthusiasm

U. S. officials, however, reserved any enthusiasm for the Soviet leader's conditioned offer to lift his Dec. 31 deadline for signing a separate treaty with East Germany until they are certain what he meant. They indicated that his speech seemed to contain no basic change in his views on Germany.

An Atomic Energy Commission spokesman, asked how much fuel

Says He Lacked Funds To Return to Army

Military Police were due in Kingston today to pick up Philip M. Scraggs of Kerhonkson charged with desertion from the U.S. Army.

Scraggs, who has been working recently as an iron worker for an aggregate firm on Route 32, was stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska. The FBI agent who apprehended him Tuesday night, quoted Scraggs as saying he came home on furlough but didn't have sufficient funds to return. He was taken to Ulster County jail to await Military Police.

OCS Board Renews Option On Epstein Property Site

Ontario Board of Education has voted to renew its option on the so-called Epstein property in the town of Shandaken.

Action to extend the six-month option was by unanimous vote of the board Monday night. The present option expires on Oct. 30.

Renewal of the option is a preliminary phase to another bond issue for building construction in the Ontario Central Schools District. In the first bond issue defeated earlier this year, a new school was planned on the Epstein site.

Another bond issue is anticipated next March. District Principal George R. Sullivan was recently authorized by the Ontario board to conduct a survey of building needs on the local level. The action followed board rejection of a proposal to hire a professional consultant firm to do the survey.

Two new members of the board—the Rev. Chase Page of Phoenixia and Edward Unser of Samsonville—attended their first meeting. They succeed Edward G. West and John Aalto, both of whom recently resigned their posts.

The board denied a request by a group of parents on Route 28 that the school district rearrange its transportation schedule so children could be discharged on their home side of the highway. The request was denied on the grounds that the cost would be prohibitive. The parents and their attorney, John Schick of Kingston, had made the request in an appearance before the board at the September meeting.

Two Memorandums

However, Watson I. Goodrich, director of transportation for the district, sent a memorandum that two central stopping points be established. Safety-wise, this would be better than stopping the school bus every 50 to 100 feet as is now the practice, he said.

Goodrich said he had checked the area on Route 28, west of the intersection of Route 28 and Buley loop. There is a very wide shoulder on the highway at this point so that students could walk to these two stops with relative safety. Goodrich also urged that efforts be made to encourage parents accompany their children to the two central stopping points.

In another memorandum, Goodrich gave details of the proposed new Woodstock run for school buses. The bus would start at the intersection of Maverick Park Road and Maverick Road. The bus would proceed via Maverick Road to Route 375, then turn left, proceed via Route 375 to the Woodstock elementary school. The run would be in reverse in afternoon. The distance is approximately 3.2 miles.

Meeting Tonight To Organize AAUN Chapter

A meeting to formally organize a Woodstock chapter of the American Association for the United Nations will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harris on Shotwell Road in Woodstock.

Harris, an engineer at Rotron, will serve as chairman of the meeting. Also present will be Dr. James T. Shotwell of Woodstock, who is honorary president of the national association which is headed by Herman W. Steinkraus.

The AAUN is a major national non-governmental organization composed of individual members and local chapters, whose entire educational program is devoted to building a strong and effective public opinion in support of the United Nations. Organized in 1923 as the League of Nations Association, the AAUN adopted its present name in 1945.

Dr. Shotwell addressed a preliminary organizational meeting of the Woodstock chapter at the Guild Gallery a few days ago. He said he was happy to see Woodstock join in this democratic organization which is modeled after the League of Nations Association. There must be persons on the job facing issues as they arise, he said.

Revolution in Thinking

Describing the extent of the UN, Dr. Shotwell said it was a long and inspiring revolution of world opinion. The special crisis facing the United Nations since the untimely death of Dag Hammarskjöld calls for community discussion and support. The death was an international calamity in the light of the grave issues confronting the UN, Dr. Shotwell said.

The meeting was handled by the co-chairmen, Frances Dedrick and Mrs. Helen Goodrich Buttrick and Miss Dedrick said that thinking people must feel deeply worried and disturbed about the present precarious status of the UN. They expressed amazement at the wisdom of the founders of the UN in providing an organization for all the peoples of the world. They said there was need for a desire to demonstrate staunch support of the UN and strengthen public opinion in the United States for the world organization.

Several Items By OCS Board

A low bid of $2,266.00 for musical instruments submitted by the Empire Music Company was accepted by the Ontario Board of Education Monday night.

After considerable discussion, board members decided to go along with only two standing committees for the time being. They will be known as the Construction and Inspection committee and finance committee. The latter committee would handle such items as budget, teacher salaries and related items.

The finance committee at present includes Trustee Arthur P. Knight, chairman; Ray Cruithers, Anne Larys and Marie Kleine. Cruithers heads the construction committee which has Harry Allen, Janet Greene and Marie Kleine.

Board president, Philip Gordon, said he would revise the committee rosters because of the recent additions, to the board and to more evenly distribute the work load.

The board approved the elementary and secondary Blue Book for the 1961-62 year and audit report submitted by Francis Haug. Extension of sick leave was granted Miss Mary Owens.

Approval was granted for home teaching for Stephen Gibbs, Lynn Isaacs, Larry Wilber and Phileatus Winchell. All required medical forms have been filed with Superintendent Bennett.

Name Treasurer

Gertrude Barringer was appointed treasurer of the extra-curricular activity fund. Salary increments of $100 were approved for 18 members of the faculty under the advanced salary schedule.

Principal Walter S. Van Wageningen and Francis Hancock, a teacher, were appointed temporary substitute bus drivers for the West Hurley to Woodstock run. The rate of pay is $10 per week for a five-day week, or $2 per day for anything less than a full week. Board members emphasized this was temporary arrangement until permanent drivers could be recruited.

Other business transacted by the board:

Approved a salary adjustment for George Benedict.
Appointed Mrs. Margaret Roosa vocal music elementary teacher on a temporary basis at $5,000 salary.

Tabled a request from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodrich of Woodstock seeking reimbursement for transportation tuition costs for their daughter attending Kingston High School, pending a study of the matter.

Adopted a resolution commending several district bus drivers on attaining safe driving citations for service periods.

Authorized Dr. Sullivan to accept or reject the rebidding of site work on the athletic field at Boiceville.

Voted a $150 appropriation to build another exit at the Ashokan annex and named Dr. Bernard Dolan of Phoenixia to the district's medical staff.

Noted the election of Mrs. Betty Jane Barringer as president of the New York State Cafeteria Managers Association and commended her for same.

Dr. George Sullivan reported a fire in the school building Monday caused by overheated insulation around a pipe. There was no damage. The Olive fire department responded to the call.

OCS to Sponsor An Immunization Clinic Next Month

The Ontario Central Schools in cooperation with the Ulster County Health Department is sponsoring an immunization clinic during the month of November. The purpose of this clinic is to offer a booster dose of diphtheria and tetanus toxoid combined with whooping cough vaccine; and vaccination against smallpox. Protection against these diseases will be given to those children in kindergarten and first grade who have received the initial protection to these diseases as a baby and are now in need of a booster dose; and vaccination or re-vaccination.

Consent forms will be sent home with kindergarten and first grade pupils according to the needs as indicated by school records. These are to be signed and returned to the school if the parents wish to take advantage of this clinic. Any parent not receiving such consent form and wishing to take advantage of this offer should contact Mrs. Ruth Bark, Health Office, Bennett School, for pupils in the kindergarten annexes and Bennett School or Mrs. Elizabeth Rose for pupils in the Woodstock or West Hurley Schools.

SECOND HIGHEST OFFICE

The end of Speaker Sam Rayburn's career calls attention to an office that is perhaps the most influential after the presidency. The speaker of the House, acting either directly or through his appointees, can make or break a legislative program. It was not always thus, though some eminent men have held the post.

One president, James K. Polk, had previously been speaker, but the office has otherwise not led to the higher position. Henry Clay, whose 10 years as speaker held the record till Rayburn came along, failed in each of his three presidential races. James G. Blaine, Thomas B. Reed, Champ Clark and John N. Garner all aspired to the presidency, though only Blaine got as far as the nomination.

The power of the office began in 1889 when Reed took over. He ended the practice of congressmen refusing to vote so that there could be no quorum, by counting all actually in the House when the vote was taken. He also used the office to jam through party measures that might otherwise have failed.

Though Rayburn and Joseph G. Cannon were both picturesque Reed was the most memorable. He could destroy an opponent with a phrase, as in his observation about a colleague, "Every time the honorable gentleman opens his mouth, he subtracts something from the sum total of human knowledge."

Mayor Brandt says there will be no war over Berlin. Now if only we could be assured that there'll be no war over New York, Keokuk, Pocattot and points west.

WORTH STRIVING FOR

Popular opinion about the United Nations tends to be polarized. At one extreme stand those who claim for it, with a kind of fanatical optimism, the ability to settle all international disputes and set the world to rights. At the other end of the spectrum, a small but vociferous minority condemn the U.N. as an instrument of the devil which will destroy national sovereignty and bring the world to ruin.

Neither of these extreme views can be accepted by reasonable men of good will. It is more important than ever, now that the U.N.'s life is threatened by internal dissension, to keep one's opinion about it in rational perspective.

The United Nations is humanity's best effort to impose order on a chaotic world and to achieve through concerted action a society in which all men shall have the rights and opportunities now enjoyed by relatively few. This goal has clearly not been reached; there is little prospect that it will be reached in our lifetime; it may never be reached. But it is a goal eminently worth striving for. That is the essence of the United Nations — a striving toward realization of man's best hopes. It merits the devoted support of all whose concern extends beyond their own daily lives.

A FEW SIMPLE RULES

A formidable army of nimrods has already taken the field this autumn. The army will become even larger as hunters move from grouse to pheasants to ducks to deer, with various other game in between. And this year, as always, the hunting news is grimly seasoned with items of tragedy. The other day a man riding with a loaded shotgun stopped his car in a hurry, stepped out, fired at a bird he had spotted—and somehow stumbled and shot, instead, his small son who was sitting in the car. The other day a youth swung his rifle to fire at a rabbit—but the gun hit a tree and discharged prematurely, killing the youth's best friend.

Those items are typical. They repeat a needless pattern that could be shattered if only those affixed would follow a few simple rules of caution. Almost every gun accident can be traced to failure to do that.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
BETTER DEAD THAN RED

"The Evening News" of Newburgh, N. Y., published the following comment by the Rev. Ernest L. Howard, a Unitarian minister:
"There are some highly dangerous trends of thought behind certain slogans being bandied about in our country today. As an example, take the motto, 'Better Dead than Red,' now beginning to crop up on bumper stickers. What kind of motivation could possibly lead to such a superficial and dangerous generalization? A martyr complex, irrational fear and hostility, ignorance regarding alternatives, emotionalistic nationalism: these are some of the possibilities that must be considered."

Mr. Howard might think of other slogans: "We cannot be half slave and half free." Or, "Give me liberty or give me death." Or, "I have but one life to give for my country."

Were these superficial and dangerous generalizations? Perhaps it would have been smarter for Nathan Hale to go to Canada with other Tories or for Patrick Henry to play it safe by saying nothing at all. We surely might assume that John Hancock and the other signers of the Declaration of Independence took a frightening risk when they prepared that document, for which they declared:

"And for the support of this Declaration with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

Was this rhetoric? Shall we attribute to Thomas Jefferson, who wrote those words, "a martyr complex, irrational fear and hostility?" Mr. Howard has raised many questions in his sermon, preached in a Unitarian church. He spoke of "ignorance regarding alternatives." The phrase fascinated me. Do not men have ideals for which they are willing to fight, even to die, or are we craven clods to whom life itself is so valuable that to remain alive we are willing to accept every indecency and horror in life? What is the alternative to love, for instance? Would Mr. Howard say that men who, in many countries, have stood on the barricades and fought for human liberty, for the rights of man, had alternatives? What were they? Of course, they might have stayed at home to eat rabbit stew and drink a bottle of wine.

Mr. Howard spoke of "emotionalistic nationalism," by which we must assume that he means patriotism. It is possible for a man to have no emotions regarding his native land. To such, one country is as good as another, as meaningful as another. Such a man does not thrill at the sight of his national flag when he sees it after a sojourn in distant places nor does the national anthem mean more than a jingle that is usually badly sung and loudly played. Such a man does not understand the emotionalism of Walter Scott's poem:
"Breathes there the man, with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land!
Whose heart hath ne'er within him burn'd,
As home his footsteps he hath turn'd,
From wandering on a foreign strand?
If such there breathe, go, mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell:
High though his titles, proud his name,
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim;
Despite those titles, power, and pelf,
The wretch, concentered all in self,
Living, shall forfeit fair renown,
And, doubly dying, shall go down
To the vile dust, from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonored and unsung."

The time has come to ask what is the alternative to nationalism, to patriotism, Howard's church is an American institution, founded as an expression of the right of the individual to worship God as he chooses, according to his own philosophy and precepts without interference by authority. It is a church which has played a great role in American history.

The Unitarians descend from the Socinians, named after Faustus Socinus (1539-1604), an Italian theologian, who believed in total freedom of conscience, although he recognized that the state was to have some authority over the organized activities of churches. The Catechism of Rakau is an amazing document for its time or for any time because of its total recognition of freedom of conscience. Toleration was a fundamental principle with the Socinians. And in the United States, where they have always been called Unitarians, they practiced what they preached.

Unfortunately Mr. Howard goes beyond tolerance of virtuous alternatives; he proposes that evil (Marxism) be accepted as an alternative. (Copyright 1961, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Dermatologists Explore Problems of Aging Skin
By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here are some hints given by a pair of prominent dermatologists on the subject of the aging skin.

Features of the aging skin are: thinning, increasing dryness, scaliness, wrinkling and drooping.

Water-in-oil emulsions (cold creams) and oil-in-water emulsions (vanishing creams) relieve dryness and scaliness. Their cost, but not their usefulness, is increased by coloring matter, perfumes, hormones and other medicinal products.

Wrinkle creams are "quite useless." It seems unlikely that any locally applied product will stop or reverse the changes that take place well below the surface of the skin and that are the changes responsible for wrinkling and sagging.

Certain of the anti-wrinkle creams contain mercury which, if deposited below the surface, may produce a peculiar and permanent dirty-appearing discoloration.

Anti-freckle creams are ineffective and may cause "violent reactions."

There is no proof that hormone creams act as skin rejuvenators. Other than softening and smoothing the skin in the manner of an unmedicated cold cream or vanishing cream, there is no proof that these attractively advertised products have any beneficial effect.

Prolonged, overuse of hormone cream may result in sufficient absorption of the gland extract to produce serious changes throughout the body. Indeed, there is a remote possibility that they may stimulate cancer growth (carcinogenesis).

The addition of animal and fish extracts, amniotic fluid, turtle oil and royal jelly "falls into the realm of 'malarkey.'"

"We sincerely doubt that a panacea for the aging process is in the making. Nothing yet discovered will restore lost youth."

Changes in the skin usually interpreted as aging are largely due to the cumulative effects of sunlight. If one compares unexposed and exposed areas of the same individual, it is unusual to find degenerative changes in unexposed areas.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

The situation in South Viet Nam is blacker than has been reported.

Diplomatic and military men admit privately it is touch and go whether the United States can keep South Viet Nam from going down the Communist drain.

Says one key diplomat, "I wouldn't bet either way right now."

SAYS ANOTHER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL:

"The only practical plan of action we have is a long, slow build-up. It will take time. Our optimists estimate it can be done in 18 months. I think it will take longer. It's not something you can do rapidly."

"So whether we hold Viet Nam or whether we lose it depends on the Communists," he continues. "If they step up their present guerrilla drive in an all-out attempt to knock off President Ngo Dinh Diem's government, they can take over before our program gets off the ground."

"If, somehow or other, they are convinced that it's too dangerous a move for now and that they'd better go slowly, we have a chance. I think they're going to act fast."

Neither the State Department nor Pentagon men have any idea what will convince the Reds that this rapid take over is too dangerous a move to make.

The military men in background sessions talk of sending regional combat teams to Southeast Asia. They admit privately that they think a few American combat troops aren't going to scare the Red North Vietnamese off.

THE LOYAL VIETNAMESE

do not lack for troops. The army is being expanded from 150,000 to 175,000. The hard-core Communist troops number 16,500.

The loyal Vietnamese do not lack for weapons. Most of the Communist weapons have been captured from the loyal troops. The loyal Vietnamese do not lack in fighting ability. In the pitched battles, loyal troops defeat the Red guerrillas regularly.

But the Reds are taking over more and more of the countryside—at least by night. They are levying on the rice crops. They are picking up conscripts and volunteers and setting up cells.

When government troops move into a village, the Reds disappear. When the government troops move on, chasing the will-o'-the-wisp Reds someplace else, the Reds appear in the village again, right on their heels and "punish" those who have helped the government.

The Reds are systematically killing "nonco-operative" village officials at the rate of several hundred a month. They're killing peasant farmers who report Red moves to government troops.

They are helping farmers who co-operate. They are gradually convincing many South Vietnamese their government can't protect them, and that they'd better play along with the Reds.

THE SITUATION IS GETTING WORSE, FAST. For the past three months, Red organizers and guerrilla fighters have been slipping into South Viet Nam at a sharp pace.

Today in World Affairs

Kennedy's First Victory Over K in Cold War Seen

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy, in behalf of the United States, has won his first victory in the "cold war." When he met with Premier Khrushchev in Vienna last June, Mr. Kennedy said no "ultimatum" had been presented to him. Later it was disclosed that the Soviet Premier had left a memorandum with the President which was widely interpreted as an ultimatum—that before the end of this year the Soviets would sign a peace treaty with East Germany abrogating the four-power agreement signed after the close of World War II.

But now the Soviet Premier announces that the plan for signing a peace treaty with East Germany will not be carried out this year and will be postponed. As so often happens in diplomacy, the Premier decided to confirm Mr. Kennedy's earlier interpretation of the Vienna conference because it now seems expedient to do so.

This may sound like an unimportant detail and perhaps it is no proof of any fundamental modification of the Soviet viewpoint on the main issues of the current controversy over Berlin. But it is significant nevertheless of a change in the timing. It can only mean that Mr. Kennedy's firm position has been duly taken into account in Moscow and that all the words in the President's speech to the UN and in his private conversations with Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko here really did take effect.

What stimulates a feeling of satisfaction here is that despite Premier Khrushchev's big talk about the Soviet plan to test a large megaton bomb ever developed, he is not making any moves that indicate he will really use nuclear weapons to force the allies to agree to his views on the problem of Berlin. In a broad sense, the whole world can derive the inference that, while talk of a big nuclear war still continues, it has not been given any real impetus by the speeches made or the events occurring on either side of the Iron Curtain.

When one, therefore, concludes that President Kennedy has won a significant victory in staying the hand of Premier Khrushchev, it is important to note that this was brought about by a remarkable display of unity inside the United States. Not only have both political parties supported firmness as the nation's policy, but public-opinion polls have reflected the refusal of the American people to be bluffed or intimidated by repeated mention of the horrors of war. Instead, the people have talked considerably about building "fallout" shelters and have indicated that, if war comes, they will face up to its realities.

Under these circumstances, it would seem logical to record that the President's policy of firmness, coupled with a sense of restraint and a willingness to go on talking, has had a favorable sequel—Mr. Khrushchev is now pulling the "ultimatum" idea out of the shelf and perhaps it will stay there indefinitely. (Reproduction Rights Reserved)

Reduces Tension

To people who generally are not familiar with the nuances of diplomacy and the crafty maneuvers that precede "negotiations," it will bring a sigh of relief anyway. For it does reduce tension somewhat. It shows that Mr. Khrushchev became convinced that he cannot deal lightly with the American viewpoint or brush it aside and immediately sign a peace treaty with East Germany.

The formalizing of such a pact, moreover, has more meaning than appears on the surface. For a sign a peace treaty between the Soviets and East Germans means the end and not the beginning of "negotiations" with the West. If, for instance, the Soviet treaty were signed, there would be nothing further to negotiate with Moscow. It would imply that everything had been left for the allies to settle with the puppet government of East Germany.

The Soviet government would then be taking it self out of the parleys altogether and whatever hopes it had for other "concessions" or new arrangements concerning, for instance, the Polish boundary would have to be abandoned.

Long Negotiations Ahead

So the incident confirms the

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

I have come to realize that William Randolph Hearst was one of the greatest patriots in our history. He did his best to defeat Franklin D. Roosevelt and cause the nomination of John N. Garner, of Texas, in the fateful convention of 1932. Garner was a patriot in the narrowest sense of the word.

Nowadays political discussion is not merely tainted with "foreign aid." No, "foreign aid" is a major lien on all our genius, toil and personal effort. We go to prison for refusing to pay income taxes for "foreign aid."

Our young men and women are dragged into armies to fight for strange, upstart mob leaders in primitive Asian and African lands. We have ceased to think of the United States as a nation, whole, separate and better than all others in the world.

In that 1932 convention, Hearst backed Garner. He was the only prominent man outside Texas who did want Garner. Roosevelt had supported the League of Nations, or "Internationalism."

Col. E. M. House, as spokesman for Roosevelt, assured Hearst that Roosevelt had renounced that position, but he "cooperated" that assurance with a proviso that Roosevelt would tell this to Hearst "privately," not publicly.

Hearst replied: "He should make his declaration publicly that he has changed his mind and that he is now in favor of keeping the national independence which our forefathers won for us. If Mr. Roosevelt only wants to make his statement to me in private, I would not believe him. * * * I would consider him either cowardly or untrustworthy."

Hearst now assigned George Rothwell Brown, a fine journalist with a fervent patriotism, to call on Garner in Washington and canvass Garner's political positions. Brown reported that because Garner was in the lower House and the League of Nations had been fought to death in the Senate, Garner had taken no public stand. Brown gave his own assurance, however, that Garner was "opposed to all foreign entanglements."

Garner believed in thrift and economy in government and, as a banker, abhorred extravagance. He was absolutely opposed—as Calvin Coolidge, American, had been to cancellation of the European war debts to us.

Garner had a deep sense of obligation first of all to his own country. He was an old-fashioned, patriotic American and a rugged Democrat of the Andrew Jackson school, Brown wrote. He was sound on tariff and finance. (Nowadays the AFL-CIO, though still idiotic about Roosevelt, is beginning to demand protection in California, Garner was in Washington and the convention was in Chicago. There was a deadlock after three ballots and Hearst concluded that the nominee might be Baker or Smith. The re-election of Herbert Hoover, the worst "internationalist" of all, might result from the confusing influence of a Democratic split.

Hearst apparently gave doubting credence to the tricky assurance from the weird character of Colonel House that Roosevelt had abandoned "internationalism." So Hearst notified Garner that he now believed Roosevelt should be the nominee "to save the country from peril." (teevee tariffs.)

On New Year's Day 1932, Hearst made a broadcast practically nationwide naming and rejecting candidates who were "internationalists." They were Roosevelt, Newton Baker, who had been Wilson's secretary of war, and J. Smith. Hearst then proposed as "the nation's great hope, John N. Garner, a loyal American citizen, a plain man of the plain people and sincere Democrat; in fact, another Champ Clark. Garner's heart is with his own people. His interest is in his own country."

Garner was almost a stranger to the country at large. But vehement expressions by Hearst were so influential that in the California Democratic primary, Garner beat both Roosevelt and Smith, who were supposed to be the only real contenders. This gave Garner the California delegation of 46 votes in addition to his Texas delegation of 44 votes, entering the convention in June.

Hearst was in San Simeon, his mountain home on the Pacific. Within a year, Roosevelt repudiated his entire platform, recognized Soviet Russia and sold the United States into slavery to Soviet Russia, and eventually the United Nations, and now all the wild, ungovernable primitives of the world.

Grotesque tribal nabobs tear meat with their hands and throw garbage on the carpets of luxurious American hotels.

For years, Hearst's patriotism was called patrioteering.

Henry Luce, a weird, furtive genius with no defined principles, invented an epithet for American reporters employed by William Randolph Hearst. It is "Hearstling." It has the sound of the hiss of a snake.

I am glad to have been a "Hearstling." I am proud that I was with him in the years of his waning when the going was most dangerous in the worst jungles of "internationalism," New York and Washington.

Garner ran out of gas and retired up a dirt trail while Hearst fought on with his last strength.

He was one of the great Americans.

So They Say...

By all odds, the United States is the strongest scientific nation in the world. The scope, breadth, and quality of work leaves no room for comparison.

—Dr. Jerome B. Weisner, science advisor to the President.

Who says our foreign aid program of feeding the undeveloped peoples of the world has not been a success? ... They have been getting fat on Uncle Sam's generosity.

—Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., revealing the U. S. shipped 4,800 cans of a reducing drink to South Viet Nam.

Isn't it time for us to face the facts that discussion of disarmament, the World Court and the rule of law is nonsensical and a waste of time and that the United Nations is collapsing?

—Alfred M. Landon, 1936 GOP presidential candidate.

Anybody who thinks Khrushchev is bluffing over Berlin is mad. ... He has his roots planted in the soil and it would take a war to stop him from getting his way over the recognition of Eastern Germany.

—Sir Leslie Plummer, British Member of Parliament.

matter of FACT

Confederate victories were giving Yankees a headache a century ago, judging by advertisements of the day. One nostrum called Wolcott's Instant Pain Annihilator pictured a man with a severe headache, tormented by demons labelled "Confederate victories." After a dose of Wolcott's, the man's headache is gone and the demons lie beaten.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Received a number of interesting items from readers. One is a postal card from Mrs. Harold Van Bramer, (Pauline Schackel) of 99 East Chester Street. They have the Van Bramer market on McEntee Street and remember the good old days that are mentioned in this column.

This picture shows many girls, dressed in red white and blue, and I think the ones in the blue field are holding big white stars, which altogether forms the American flag. It was called "The Human Flag, of 500 school girls, representing the American flag, for the 250th Anniversary, of Kingston, N. Y. Six important looking gentlemen are sitting in front and Mrs. Van Bramer said it took place in O'Reilly's Wood or where the Kingston High School lawn is now, opposite the City Hall.

Attorney Peter H. Harp of New Paltz sent me newspapers which his wife's cousin, Mrs. Howard Markle of Esopus found behind an old picture. One is during the Civil War, about 1862 and another around 1874. I think one is a Rochester paper and dated Dec. 1873 is of good rag paper, and although print is small it can be read. In those days they must have had fine eye-glasses, both the printers to pick out print and set up the type and the readers.

That was before these wonderful inventions in electric light bulbs that are supposed to help you read the modern large print. I take it, these were read by candlelight and kerosene lamps. In those days sometimes one pair of eye-glasses was used by both husband and wife for reading, and everyone could enjoy the newspaper fine print.

The 1862, New York newspaper is not complete. One item is from Sharpsburg, Baltimore, Sept. 23, 1862, which reads in part: "There has come a lull, in which the contending armies are lying quietly, with the Potomac between them, awaiting developments, which will at no distant day probably bring them again in collision. 'I guess same words cold and hot wars of all ages.

Another line on the Civil War from the same item: "The village is literally overwhelmed by the army. Soldiers swarm everywhere, and regiments and divisions move in so many directions that the eye becomes confused in the attempt to detect the purpose of what is going on. Gen. McClellan's headquarters are in the vicinity, and he can be seen several times a day, moving about, over-looking and directing movements in progress."

This must have been a New York newspaper with a large circulation for it has many advertisements in fine print. Lost and found is a very busy column of such items as: "Near 30th Street and 6th Avenue Friday morning, a Scotch Terrier, answers to Pepper. $5 reward etc." They lost items like a gold watch, a black shell opera glass, gold spectacles in case and other pets.

Then there was a column, a long one, where people were looking for each other. One item reads: "Will the lady from the country call at Taylor's saloon this day" another "Barnard McConlogie, a native of Donegal, Ireland left home, August 29, 1862. Any information of him will be thankfully received by his wife, Ann McConlogie, 647 Washington Street."

Reservoir Charge Invites Parties To Discuss Aims

The Reservoir Church's commission on Christian Social Concerns has invited spokesmen from the Democratic and Republican parties to present platforms and answer questions from the floor during town meetings to be held during the week before election for the Town of Olive at Ashokan and the Town of Hurley at West Hurley.

Allen Wenner, chairman of the commission, noted that final arrangements have not yet been set. Details of the meeting will continue as flexible as possible in order to allow both parties to make their best presentation. The commission's goal for the meeting is to encourage the greatest number of the general public as well as the church membership to become informed voters.

Sunday service will be 9:30 a. m., Ashokan; 11 a. m. West Hurley with nursery; 12:30 p. m. Glenford with nursery. Sunday school will be West Hurley 9:30 a. m.; Ashokan 10:45 a. m.; Glenford 11:30 a. m.

A time of after-supper fellowship will be held in the Reservoir Churches from 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. for Ashokan on Monday, Glenford, Tuesday, and West Hurley, Wednesday, Oct. 23-25. The Will of Augusta Nash, a movie dramatization, will be followed by a panel discussion on the points brought up in the film. Refreshments will follow to conclude the evening, sponsored by the commission on stewardship.

Thursday, Oct. 26 week-day church school will be held for West Hurley grades 2-5, 2:20 p. m., West Hurley Church; West Hurley Junior choir, 7 p. m.; senior choir, 8 p. m.; Glenford choir, 9 p. m.

Saturday, Oct. 27, West Hurley Church school Halloween party will be held 7:30-10 p. m. at the church.

Po'keepsie Man Is Indicted in Death of Boy, 14

A 25-year-old Poughkeepsie man was indicted Tuesday by a Dutchess County grand jury on a charge of criminal negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle resulting in the death of a 14-year-old boy on Aug. 18.

Robert Farrier, of 117 Smith Street, Poughkeepsie, is accused in the indictment of operating a car which struck and fatally injured John Rogers Jr., of 87 Van Wagner Road, Town of Poughkeepsie.

The boy and his father were walking along Van Wagner Road on their way home from stock car races at Arlington Raceway when they were hit by the car driven by Farrier, a Dutchess County highway department employee.

The boy's father was seriously injured. Rogers is a houseman employed at Vassar Hospital.

Thousands of Fish Die
WATERLOO, N. Y. (AP) — The State Conservation Department is testing water in the State Barge Canal in an effort to determine the cause of death to thousands of fish in the canal between here and Seneca Falls.

The fish were discovered Tuesday. Similar incidents have occurred in recent years in the canal due to water pollution.

Railroader Killed
NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Robert Kuhlman, 40, of Niagara Falls, a yard foreman with the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was killed Tuesday night when he was struck by a moving freight train in the yards here.

Lefkowitz Hits Mayor Over Smog

NEW YORK (AP)—Smog has joined crime as an issue in the mayoral campaign.

Republican candidate Louis J. Lefkowitz said today that Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner has failed during eight years at City Hall to do anything to avert repetition of the deadly "smog" that hit the city in 1953. Lefkowitz said the air pollution took 170 to 260 lives in a 10-day period.

Wagner, hitting back at charges by his GOP opponent, announced Tuesday a three-point program to curb crime and juvenile delinquency and to make the streets and parks safer.

The mayor said in a statement that Lefkowitz, New York State attorney general, had engaged in a reckless campaign of sensationalism on law enforcement.

Sent to Matteawan
A 23-year-old Red Hook man, indicted by a Dutchess County grand jury on charges of endangering the life and health of a child and second degree assault involving a six-year-old girl, was committed Tuesday to Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminally Insane, Beacon. County Judge John R. Schwartz said a commission of psychiatrists had found Lester Charles Feller Jr., South Broadway, Red Hook, unable to understand the nature of charges pending against him.

at your Chevrolet dealer's one-stop shopping center!

Discovering your kind of car just couldn't be simpler! Why? Because your Chevrolet dealer is offering three separate and complete lines of cars—plus the Corvette—for 1962.

If you like your cars full size, by all means consider the beautiful new Jet-smooth '62 Chevrolets. Fourteen models to choose from, including elegant new Impalas, sure-to-please new Bel Airs and neat new Biscaynes.

If you like your cars trim and sporty, then one of the nine new Corvairs, with their sure-footed rear-engine agility, may be just the model for you.

And, if in-between size is your size... you couldn't have come to a better place. You can pick one of the brand-new Chevy II models—each built a new way for a new kind of modern, basic transportation. With so much to choose from, you're sure to find just the size, the model and the worth you want... in one easy stop at your Chevrolet dealer's.

'62 CHEVROLET IMPALA SPORT COUPE

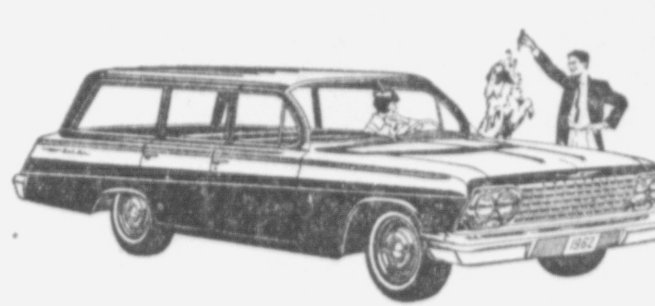

Folks look twice at this Impala hardtop and they still think it's a soft top. The sculptured steel roof is molded into crisp convertible contours... it's the sweetest trick of the year. All the plush roominess, Jet-smooth silkeness and extra Impala refinements are here just as you want them. You'd expect no less from the top of the Chevrolet line—and you'd scarcely expect more from the top of anybody's line. So why pay more?

THE NEW CHEVY II 100 4-DOOR SEDAN

Here's a new-sized family sedan as spacious as many recent-model full-sized cars inside. Built to save you money on service and maintenance. Fenders bolt on for easy fixin'. Your choice of a frugal 4- or 6-cylinder engine (in most models). And those new Mono-Plate rear springs ride satiny smooth.

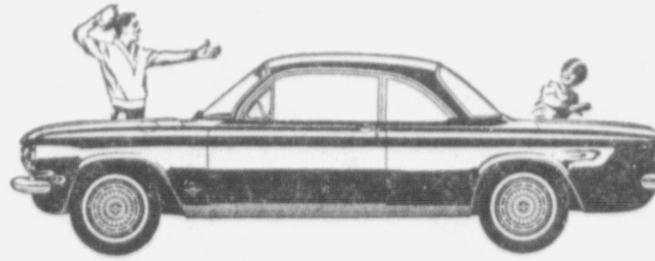

'62 CHEVROLET BEL AIR STATION WAGON

Chevrolet station wagon fever is delightfully contagious—and here's one reason why. This one has an easy-loading cargo opening nearly 5 ft. across. Sports a spunky standard Six or V8... optional extra-cost V8's up to 409 hp. Keeps its good looks (front fenders, for instance, have new steel undershirts to resist corrosion).

THE NEW CHEVY II NOVA 400 SPORT COUPE

Here's a heart-stopper that's not a budget-stopper. It's soon-to-be-available Chevy II hardtop. Front bucket seats are optional at extra cost, along with plenty of other options and accessories. And there's a snappy Chevy II convertible coming to join it soon.

'62 CORVAIR MONZA CLUB COUPE

If you want sports car spice on a budget—this one's for you. Corvairs have a perky new look for '62, sporty new interiors and bigger new brakes. They climb, corner and cling with road-rally reflexes, what with that 4-wheel independent suspension and the engine in the rear.

See the '62 Chevrolet, the new Chevy II and '62 Corvair at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

Hand too Strong For Preempt Bid

Written for

What is the purpose of showing today's hand? There is nothing complicated about the bidding.

As for the play: South wins the heart opening in his own hand, draws trumps, goes after the diamond suit, finds that it fails to break and eventually concedes a trick to the ace of clubs.

The reason for showing the hand is that when it was played South chose to make the lazy man's opening of four spades.

I have seen these rock-crusher preempts made in fourth seat so often that anything I can do to teach people that when your hand is strong enough to open with a forcing bid of two you should always open with that bid and not with a preempt.

Of course, when he played the hand at four spades and made six, South was ready with his explanation. He told his partner, something like this: "You had passed originally. I didn't think we had much chance to get together on a minor suit save."

North accepted the voluntary explanation, but I don't accept it. South held 17 out of the 40 high card points and had no reason to expect that East and West who had both passed could make enough tricks in any suit to warrant bidding against a two spade opening.

Saugerties Man Is Indicted by Dutchess Jury

A 24-year-old Saugerties truck driver was indicted Tuesday by a Dutchess County grand jury on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated after having a previous conviction for a similar offense.

John F. Rozelle, RD 4, Saugerties, was arrested on July 12, after a truck he was driving was in collision with a car operated by Lewis Erhart, 73, of Rhinebeck. The crash occurred on Mill Street, Rhinebeck, and Erhart and his wife, Ruby, 72, were injured and hospitalized.

After the collision, Rozelle was summoned by State Police Sergeant Walter Donegan on a drunken driving charge. Rozelle was paroled by Town of Rhinebeck Justice of the Peace George Harrington pending disposition of the charge.

Troopers said the truck operated by Rozelle was owned by Arthur Forst, RFD, Saugerties.

Youngsters Must Get Opportunity, Says Youth Leader

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — "We must not rest until all the youngsters in this state have the opportunity to take a responsible position in an adult world," the director of the state youth division says.

Alexander Aldrich appealed to parents and teachers to join in a program to promote responsibility among youths.

He said his agency's work included "providing leadership on a state level for a sustained community effort" on behalf of youth. Aldrich spoke Tuesday night at the 64th annual convention of the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Total industrial output has slipped a bit from its August peak.

But before you jump to the conclusion it's been a short recovery from the recession that bottomed out in February and March, remember: Most other segments of the economy have retained a reassuringly healthy glow.

And even in the industrial sector, the major setback can be traced to shutdowns in General Motors plants in September and in Ford plants this month, and to crippling of oil and chemical production by Hurricane Carla.

Car Sales Climbing
Also, latest reports show October sales of new cars picking up vigor. The auto industry hopes this means that production lost by labor troubles can be regained in coming weeks—and justified by good retail sales.

The output of most consumer goods, other than autos, gained during September. So did the production of many industrial materials, other than auto parts and oil, hurt by labor troubles or weather mishaps.

The big question still is consumer buying, rather than industrial output which in the long run is largely tailored to the former. And spending holds high for most services and many consumer goods.

Count on Yule Spirit
Retailers count on the Christmas spirit to pep up this spending in coming weeks. They also hope that the uncertainties bred of the recession will fade in consumer minds, and that the Berlin crisis

Complains He's Getting Litter From Islip
ISLIP, N.Y. (AP) — Highway Superintendent William E. Stochl began a year ago handing out auto litter bags to encourage motorists to keep the streets and highways here clean.

Today, he had a letter from Kenneth A. Martin of Farmingdale, a community about 12 miles away. It said:

"I must congratulate you on your campaign to keep Islip beautiful. I see it has worked very well. People are now dumping their litter in my yard in Farmingdale."

will ease and with it purse-tightening cautions.

Many economists think the public is likely to attach too much importance to the lasting effects of strikes on general business. They concede that the long strike in steel in 1959 caused major ups as well as downs in the business curve. In large part this was due to attempts by management in steel supplying and steel consuming industries to adjust before the strike, during it and after it. The poststrike adjustment in particular proved to be exaggerated.

"Usually the effects of work stoppages are shaken off rather quickly," say economists at the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York.

Predictions for total national output of goods and services seem to grow with each passing week. This may be due to the natural optimism of those in office. And partly it's due to the expectation that rising government spending will stimulate the economy. And a rising federal deficit could set the psychological stage for another inflationary boom.

Denise May Be Quick
But largely the belief that the September easing in industrial output isn't too important in the long run is due to the knowledge that the economy spreads over too many fields these days for any one industry, or even any grouping of industries, to have the impact for betterment or detriment that once was the case.

If city folk go on spending for the things they need and want if farmers turn the blessing of good harvests in most parts of the nation into steady or increased spending, the auto work stoppages and the ravages of Carla may quickly become past history—really past.

50 Men Searching For Man Wanted In Elmira Slays

JOHNSON CITY, N.Y. (AP)—State Police pressed a search of woods near this city today for an unemployed machinist wanted in the slaying of a man and a youth in an abandoned quarry near Elmira.

About 50 men searched a hilly, wooded area near the Susquehanna River until dusk for Philip McGinn, 23, of Elmira.

State Police cars patrolled the outskirts of the area during the night and the searchers were to resume their task at dawn.

McGinn has been sought for questioning in the deaths of James H. Marshall, 17, a junior at Elmira Free Academy, and William P. Falls, 23.

McGinn, who has eluded searchers since Saturday, was believed to have gotten a ride to Johnson City in a truck, police said. On Tuesday, a hunter said he spotted a man near the Susquehanna and that the man fled without speaking.

A hotel owner in Johnson City reported that a man who fitted McGinn's description had attempted to rent a room yesterday but was refused.

Police said McGinn had moved into a shack in the quarry at Elmira after a family argument. He had been laid off at an Elmira factory.

A knapsack with McGinn's name on it and a rifle believed to be his were found in the quarry.

gangs of Algerians and attacks on police increased a few months ago.

As the rioting rocked Paris, the intermittent roar of plastic bombs and tear gas, shattering windows and store fronts in several sections of the Algerian capital.

There were reports that several Algerians had been injured in one of about 30 explosions set off, apparently by French right-wing extremists. Killings and shootings by Algerian terrorists also accounted for several dead and wounded in Algeria.

school was evacuated in one minute, 45 seconds. The drill was considered most successful.

Tests at various schools during Fire Prevention Week demonstrated the thoroughness with which fire drills can work. At New Paltz Central School in a minute and 35 seconds; Marbletown Central School, where a unique drill was scheduled, the school was vacated in a minute and a half with the students using windows as exits, eliminating the use of corridors or doorways.

This plan was devised and put into effect by the Rev. David Arnold, deputy county fire coordinator, in a test to ascertain how quickly the school could be cleared in an extreme emergency.

A report on Mutual Aid revealed that the two-way radio is working well and there is 10 per cent cooperation in the county in covering areas by adjoining fire companies when the home company is on active duty at a fire.

Edward F. Mains of Port Ewen Fire Company reported Port Ewen held an open house as a part of the program at which approximately 100 youngsters who attended were given a view of the company's firefighting equipment and an explanation of its use.

Open house was also held at Ellenville where school children were entertained and the equipment demonstrated. Stone Ridge-Marbletown also held open house for the school children with considerable success and interest being shown in the equipment.

Advices on Material

Chairman Hicks thanked Co-chairman Joseph L. Murphy for the assistance given during his confinement to the hospital and said the aid of Chief Murphy as well as that of all who assisted was deeply appreciated. If any fire company felt hurt or that it had not been given complete assistance by Chairman Hicks, he said it was because of his being laid up and unable to give the service which he had desired. He suggested that all chiefs get in touch with the committee prior to Fire Prevention Week and ask for material for schools well in advance. This would eliminate any shortage of materials and would also prevent securing too much material and he said this would provide in the future for a more evenly distribution of materials.

Suggests Same Group

It was also suggested that the chiefs who served in 1961 be nominated and elected to the Fire Prevention Week Committee for the future event, due to the good job which they had done this year and the fact that they know the plans and working of the project.

At the next meeting of the Association in Saugerties Lionel S. Franks, a representative of the Hudson Valley Volunteers Association, will speak on Insurance.

Water-proof Soldiers

Researchers have come up with a new water-repellent and oil-repellent treatment for G.I. clothing, and the Army says it "promises to keep soldiers dryer longer, yet maintain its moisture-proof properties throughout repeated washings."

The stuff added to the cloth consists of a mixture of ammonium and fluorocarbon chemicals.

Actions Settled In Supreme Court

Settled after partially tried in Supreme Court was a negligence action brought by James H. Carlson against George Ellsworth. The action was brought to recover for injuries which Judith Carlson sustained in an accident near Sunset Theatre while a passenger in the Ellsworth car. The amount of settlement was not announced. Richter and Werbalowsky appeared for plaintiff and Roy L. Featherstone for defendant.

Also settled after a jury had been selected was a libel action brought by Mabel Brown against P. Ballantine & Sons. It was alleged a check drawn in payment for beer had been credited to another party and as a result plaintiff became involved with the State Liquor Authority. Timmerman and Carlson appeared for plaintiff and N. LeVan Haver appeared for defendant.

A jury was selected to take up a negligence action brought by Edward Cooper Jr., against The Greyhound Corporation and another. Roy L. Featherstone appears for plaintiff and Cook and Cook by Francis X. Tucker for defendant.

68 Persons Hurt In Chicago Blast

CHICAGO (AP) — An industrial explosion shook a wide area of the West Side today and at least 68 persons were reported injured.

There were no fatalities confirmed immediately but Francis Levelle, deputy police superintendent, said two persons were unaccounted for.

Eighteen were injured in the mixing room of the Helene Curtis Industries cosmetics plant, 4401 W. North Ave., occupying an entire city block. Levelle said 50 persons were injured in a Zenith Radio Corp. plant nearby.

A heavy odor of sulfuric acid spread over the site and impeded rescue work. Heavy plate-glass windows were blown from buildings in a radius blocks from the site of the blast.

The most seriously injured victim brought to Walther Memorial Hospital was a man painfully burned on the face.

Most of the other injured suffered shock and minor hurts.

Dr. Samuel Grant, research director for Helene Curtis Industries, said he believes the blast was caused by a chemical reaction to mixtures involving alcohol. The workers were making resins for use in cosmetics, he said.

All first-floor windows in the four-story Zenith plant across the street were blown in and flying glass struck workers at desks and benches along the windows.

Police cleared an area a block around the explosion site as a precaution against further explosion of chemicals stored in the plant.

The Curtis plant is the main facility of the Chicago-based company that employs 2,000 persons in several plants. It makes beauty salon supplies and equipment and retail toiletries, primarily shampoo and hair spray.

Shokan

SHOKAN — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sabie, Broadway, Kingston, were recent callers in the hub of the reservoir country.

Joseph Frank of New York and Woodstock was here Saturday. Frank has been spending several months at Vero Beach, Fla.

Frank Nerl, deputy sheriff and World War 2 veteran, is having repairs made to the one time Alex Hamilton place along the Tonchi Mountain Road which he is reported to have purchased recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schleringer, Krumville Road, called on Shokan friends the latter part of the week. Mrs. Schleringer is one of Oliver's foremost collectors of Civil War lore.

Elder William Griffin of Delaware is scheduled to conduct all-day preaching services Sunday in the Old School Baptist Meeting House, Halcottville.

Charlotte Newman, long time resident of the Woodland Valley, and daughter were Shokan callers Monday.

Ben Cohen, McEntee Street, Kingston, was a caller in the village last week.

Traffic on Route 28 and the Ashokan Reservoir roads was very heavy during the weekend. Closing of the chairlift at Belleayre which took place last Saturday had been postponed a week because of the lateness of the fall color show in the mountains.

Clarisse Leavy, Woodstock, was in town Tuesday.

Lewis Davis who is in the construction business on Long Island spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Davis.

Girl Hurt in Car Mishap

Police were notified Tuesday afternoon that a girl, who said she was uninjured after coming in contact with a car at Broadway and East Chestnut Street, was later treated by a doctor for an injury of the right arm. Her name was listed as Mary Theresa Glass, 11, of Brink's Trailer Park, Lake Katrine. The car, driven by a woman, stopped, the report said, but when the girl said she was not hurt, it continued on its way.

Elmira Tuition Upped

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—Tuition at Elmira College will be increased from $1,100 to $1,400 a year beginning next September, President J. Ralph Murray said today.

The increase was necessitated by the need for additional funds "to maintain projects essential to the well-being of the college, its students and its faculty," Murray said.

Paris Power Cut

PARIS (AP)—A four-hour electricity strike cut power in large sections of Paris today, halting subway service and elevators and creating traffic jams.

Electricity came back on shortly before noon in much of the city.

The strike by personnel in the government-run utilities and railways was largely to support demands for higher wages.

Danny and Murray Cohen, brothers of Max Cohen were convicted of being involved in that robbery. They were picked up, state police said when they fled the scene in a car they stole from a sister of a state police officer. Murray got a suspended sentence for helping in the investigation. Danny Cohen served time and later was released.

Investigator Shannon is still continuing an inquiry into the holdup of Szurek in an effort to pick up the other two men said to have been involved.

How U.S. Quickly Spots, Reports Russian A-Tests

NEW YORK — The Atomic Energy Commission's swift issuance of almost daily reports on Russian A-bomb tests indicates the extensiveness of U. S. monitoring stations around the Iron Curtain. Electronics, McGraw-Hill publication, says in an article in its current issue.

The AEC, Department of Defense and Weather Bureau are main participants in the monitoring program. None of these agencies will comment officially on methods used in gathering Soviet test data, but, says the publication, here is how it is probably done.

A world-wide system of seismic stations detects shock waves caused in the earth's crust or atmosphere by a blast. Directions recorded by a few stations at different spots permit locating the explosion by triangulation.

The explosion also creates low frequency radio waves and tremendous air pressure changes. The magnitude of the pressure drop can be measured by distant pressure gages, or the frequency of the radio waves can be determine by distant installations.

From either of these measurements, the size of the blast can be quickly calculated.

High-flying planes, the publication adds, may be used to scoop up radioactive samples after an explosion and collect additional data.

MRS. RICHARD MARTIN MEYER (Payton photo)

Kathleen Anderson of Colorado Springs Weds Kingston Man, Richard Martin Meyer

An announcement was received by the Freeman today from Colorado Springs, Colo., concerning the marriage of Miss Kathleen Ellen Anderson and Richard Martin Meyer which was solemnized at 7:30 p. m., September 2 at the First Baptist Church of Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Rev. Ward E. Hurlburt performed the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. Allan Lee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Anderson of Colorado Springs. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyer of 105 Roosevelt Avenue, Kingston.

Basket arrangements of bronze and yellow mums, gladioli, English greens, palms, and candelabra formed the background for the ceremony. Miss Janis Kane at the organ played traditional selections and accompanied Mrs. Dorothy Brown, who sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Ich Liebe Dich," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin, styled with long pointed sleeves, and scalloped neckline trimmed with lace appliques reembodying with pearls and sequins. Matching lace was repeated on the front panel, and on the bustle at the back of the full skirt which flowed into a chapel train. Her veil of English illusion fell from a crown of lace trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, which was a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Carol Haenni as matron of honor wore a dress of coffee-brown satin, styled with scal-

Is what your watch ticks off every day - quite a feat for this tiny piece of machinery! It is extremely important, therefore, that a movement which functions without stopping for periods of many months should have its pivot bearings oiled, in order to insure regular and accurate working.

Friction caused by tired, dried-up oil can cause unnecessary wear of important parts. Every watch, therefore, should be checked by specialists every eighteen months in the case of men's - and every year for women's. By spending a small sum of money your watch will work for a lifetime.

PLEASED WITH THEIR TRAVEL AGENT

Q: My husband and I have just returned home from a ten-day cruise. Arrangements for this cruise were made through a travel agent. We had excellent accommodations and everything was just perfect. He even arranged to have a bottle of champagne sent to our table while at sea. This last was a complete surprise to us, and a very nice one. Now that we are home, we wondered if there is anything we could, or should, do in return to show our appreciation for his kindness.

A: Telephone him and thank him for all he did to make your cruise as perfect as it was. In addition tell any of your friends who may be planning a trip about him and be sure to have him arrange your own future trips.

THE SUFFIX JR.

Q: My fiance and I have been arguing about the correct use of the suffix Jr. and would like you to settle it. He said that if the first name is the same as that of the father, the child is Jr. I, on the other hand, have always thought that the full name had to be the same before he was Jr. Does the difference in the middle name have any bearing on the situation?

A: Yes it does. Junior means an exact duplicate of senior, and the suffix is the only way by which one can be distinguished from the other.

Usher Shows Couple to Their Places

Q: My husband and I have been invited to my godchild's wedding which will take place in two weeks. When we arrive at the church and are greeted by an usher, do the three of us walk side by side up the aisle, or what is the correct procedure?

A: An usher will offer you his arm which you take and walk up the aisle on his right side. Your husband follows you, or if there is room he may walk on your right.

For information concerning the correct clothes of the bride and groom's parents as well as those of the wedding guests, send for the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes at Wedding Receptions." To obtain a copy, send ten cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Emily Post Institute, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

DAR Is Making Plans for 70th Anniversary Fete

The autumn luncheon meeting of the Past Regent's Club, Hudson Valley Council, Daughters of the American Revolution was held Saturday, Oct. 14, at Beau Rivage near Newburgh with Mrs. Linus F. Du Rocher, Mahlenawasigh Chapter Poughkeepsie presiding, assisted by Mrs. Adam H. Porter, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Thomas J. Cunningham, chairman of the flag committee, described the ceremony at Greer School, Dutchess County where on July 4, a flag of the United States of America was raised on the playground. This was donated by the Past Regent's Club and the project will be continued throughout the Club's existence, to schools or organizations needing flags.

An unusual white linen tablecloth was displayed by Mrs. Fred Daniels. It was presented to Enoch Crosby Chapter of Carmel by members of the Crosby Family. It was woven from flax grown on the plains near Kingston and has an interesting pattern and fringe. The period is about 1790 and it was felt by the members that the cloth was worthy of presentation to the National DAR Museum at Headquarters in Washington.

Several activities of the various chapters were discussed among them the coming celebration October 11, 1962 of the 70th Anniversary of Wiltyck Chapter, Kingston, founded by Miss Mary Isabella Forsythe, second State Regent of New York and first Regent of Wiltyck Chapter.

On-tion Chapter, Catskill has extended an invitation to the Club to hold its spring meeting at Red's near Coxsackie followed by a pilgrimage to historic Bronx House.

This was accepted. Mrs. Lindsay B. Chalmers of Catskill was elected chairman of press relations. She and her chapter members will be hostesses at the May 17, 1962 event.

Community College Is Discussed by Social Agencies

The first meeting this fall of the Ulster County Council of Social Agencies was held at the Stuyvesant-Kingston Hotel on Tuesday, Oct. 10.

Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly, president of the organization introduced the guest speaker George Shepard, who is director of student activities at Orange County Community College.

Since the voters of Ulster County will be voting on establishing a Community College next month the speaker's subject was pertinent to the Council members. Mr. Shepard traced the growth of Orange County Community College and pointed out the benefits that have accrued. Opening up the opportunity for further education beyond high school has been advantageous to adults as well as young students. Within four years the enrollment increased from 500 to 1,055 and the two programs offered are a two-year Liberal Arts and a terminal program has been extended in the Liberal Arts area. Universities or colleges will accept the Liberal Arts students so that they may complete requirements and attain their degree. The two year Terminal Program offers students the skills and knowledge needed for better jobs in their community.

The strength of America lies in the education of its citizens. Opportunity should be accessible to all to seek self improvement and further knowledge. At a minimum expense to the County and maximum opportunity to reap educational and economic benefits to all the establishment of a Community College should be commenced without further delay.
The Council of Social Agencies has been active in supporting a Community College Program since the inception of the movement.

Diem Decree Proclaims State of Emergency as Taylor Reaches Saigon

Apalachin Home For Sale Again

APALACHIN, N. Y. (AP)—The mansion of Joe Barbara Sr., scene of the notorious Apalachin gangland convention, again is for sale. Four years ago, 60-odd underworld characters and friends gathered at the 11-room fieldstone house and estate. State Police broke up the meeting. Several of the delegates later wound up in jail.

Barbara, host to the Nov. 14, 1957 meeting, died in 1959 without revealing the purpose of the gathering, which still is a mystery. Many of the delegates maintained they were visiting a sick friend.

The mansion was sold in 1959 to Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Quick of nearby Endwell for $130,000. The Quicks were blocked by zoning laws from opening the mansion and grounds as a tourist attraction.

The property includes 58 acres of land, a 12-horse stable, a four-car garage, and the barbecue pit around which many of the gangsters and friends ate choice steak.

Dayton C. Miller, physicist who took the first surgical X-ray photographs, was a resident of Strongsville, Ohio.

U.S. Plea Against

out would be created by a 50-megaton blast, replied there was no way to make an accurate appraisal since such a "device" had never been tested. He said any estimate would be only a guess, for it is unknown how much potential fallout material might be contained in the bomb.

Capacity Projected
But from the harsh mathematics of nuclear weapons and with figures made public in congressional hearings, a picture of such a bomb's capacity can be projected.

It would carry more than twice the power of the more than 20 devices detonated so far in the current series of Soviet tests. Its yield would come to nearly a third of that of all the nuclear devices exploded in war or tested by the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain by the end of 1958 when these nations temporarily halted testing.

West Capitals Dismayed
Western capitals expressed dismay over the Communist leader's plan to explode the big bomb, and there was no sign of relief over his offer to delay signing the East German peace treaty.

A West German government spokesman said Khrushchev's announced intention to test the huge bomb was "an irresponsible act toward the welfare of humanity."

In London, Britain's foreign secretary, Lord Home, criticized the Soviet premier in an address to the House of Lords. "Until this morning, when Mr. Khrushchev said he was about to explode a very large nuclear bomb, the Russian people knew not one word from their government that it had restarted nuclear tests," he said. "So, not only were the (Western) negotiators duped and the world misled, but the Russian people themselves were deceived."

Disturbance Could Be 7th Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Weather Bureau kept watch today on a tropical depression moving north from Cuba and showing signs of intensifying.

If it does become a tropical storm, it will be the season's seventh and will be called Gerda. Heavy rains hit the Bahamas, and above-normal tides struck the east Florida coast.

By JOHN GRIFFIN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, President Kennedy's special military adviser, arrived today to size up the Communist threat to South Viet Nam and expressed the Kennedy administration's "utmost confidence" in the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

A few hours after Taylor's arrival Diem proclaimed a state of emergency throughout the country in an apparent move to step up the fight against the Communist-led Viet Cong rebels.

The decree was signed last Sunday, but its announcement was apparently timed to coincide with Taylor's visit to determine whether it is necessary or advisable to send U. S. troops to assist Diem's forces.

The emergency decree suspended the application of all laws until further notice. The National Assembly was called into session and was expected to give Diem its usual solid support.

Taylor told newsmen his visit reflects Kennedy's concern over reports of stepped-up aggression against Viet Nam and that he would seek ways to assist the Diem government.

The general plans to tour mountain highlands near the Laotian border and the southern Mekong delta region, both rebel strongholds. Much of the concern that led to his mission centers around reports of heavy infiltrations of Viet Cong troops from North Viet Nam across the Laotian border.

Taylor's schedule has been announced only through Saturday, and there has been no indication of how long he may stay after that. He also is expected to visit Thailand, which fears Communist infiltration as the result of the growing Communist influence in Laos.

Rocky's School Shelter Plan Is Seen Years Away

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The fall-out-shelter protection Gov. Rockefeller envisions for all schools and colleges in the state is many months, if not years, away.

Details of the proposal for state aid for shelter construction must be worked out by state officials and the issue must be submitted to the Legislature.

Any state program would be permissive and voters in local school districts then would have to decide whether to build the shelters.

Socialist Victory

fresh sharpening of its general crisis.

Pie-in-Sky to Some
The party program before the congress was published July 30 and many Westerners immediately called it a pie-in-the-sky scheme.

With a target date of 1980, it calls for free rent, medical care, education, utilities, local transportation and factory lunches by then.

It also pledges to overtake the United States in per capita production, to maintain peaceful co-existence between socialist and capitalist states, to support independence movements throughout the world, and to keep Soviet military forces at top efficiency.

"American capitalism has passed its prime and is declining," Khrushchev declared, asserting that the "American financial oligarchy" does not have the strength or the means to implement its claims "to the role of savior of capitalism and its claims to world domination."

Cites Two Trends
The premier said two intertwining trends are operating in the "imperialist camp": A trend toward joining all forces against socialism, and a trend toward mounting rivalry "between the imperialist powers and the other countries of the capitalist world."

"The United States has not succeeded and will not succeed in overcoming the latter trend," Khrushchev asserted.

He charged that imperialism is compelling mankind to spend at least $150 billion annually for military purposes.

If only 20 per cent of that sum were spent annually on helping the underdeveloped countries, he continued, power stations could be built to produce 230 million kilowatts, steel works could be built to produce 185 million tons a year, 247 million acres could be irrigated, and many other big things could be done to improve the lives of the peoples.

"A this demonstrates once again how urgent the struggle for disarmament is to all the peoples," Khrushchev said.

Turning to the new party program, Khrushchev said it was a concrete, scientifically motivated program for the building of communism, marking a new stage in the development of the revolutionary theory of Marx, Engels and Lenin.

Supremacy Increases
He boasted that communism no longer has to contend with capitalist encirclement but rather is being built "under the conditions created by the existence of a world socialist system, the increasing supremacy of the socialist forces over those of imperialism, of the forces of peace over those of war."

Within 20 years, Khrushchev asserted, "a Communist society will be in the main built in the U.S.S.R."

"Once the Soviet Union will have become the first industrial power," he continued, "once the socialist system will have fully become the decisive factor of world development and once the peace forces the world over will have grown still greater, the scales will tilt once and for all in favor of the forces of peace and the barometer of international weather will show: 'Clear. The menace of world war is gone never to return.'"

Lists Some Goals
He outlined these goals he said the program would achieve for the Soviet Union in the next 20 years: Industrial production nearly twice as great as the present production of the entire nonsocialist world; a living standard higher than in any capitalist country; the world's shortest working day; disappearance of low-paid industrial and office workers by 1970; full maintenance of all disabled persons at public expense; rent-free modern housing and free basic communal services for every family.

At the same time, Khrushchev declared, Soviet defenses will be maintained at a level adequate to "crush any aggressor who dares to draw the sword against the Soviet Union and the socialist world as a whole."

Still Paying Off
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—At 74, Miss Margaret Lambert of Point Pleasant paid an insurance company $6,000 on its promise she would receive $56 a month for life.

Now 100, Miss Lambert has received payments totaling $17,163. The insurance company had figured she had one chance in 23 of reaching 100.

Financial and Commercial

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—An assortment of wide gains highlighted a stock market which advanced unevenly early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .83 at 256.90 with Industrials up 1.20, rails up .50 and utilities up .30.

Most of the pivotal issues showed fractional gains but many stocks were unchanged or fractionally lower.

Some special issues rose 1 to 4 points. These gainers were few and far between.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon's prediction of a larger-than-expected federal deficit tended to increase inflation talk. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's offer to withdraw the year-end deadline for signing a German peace treaty removed some nervousness in Wall Street. Although both these factors were bullish, there was no uniform response in the market.

Steels and autos were unchanged to a bit higher. Aircraft-missiles continued to fade. Some of the merger candidates among the oil made progress. Tobacco was on the upside.

Eastman Kodak advanced about 3 points, apparently in further response to its improved third quarter earnings. Xerox spurted another 4 points or more. Crown Cork rose more than 3.

Jury Back Again Deciding Fate of Former Chorine

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A jury today resumes deliberating the fate of Lillian Reis, accused by the prosecution of masterminding a $478,000 burglary then using some of the money to purchase a night club where she once danced.

The jury of five women and seven men received the case at 4:01 p.m. Tuesday but recessed deliberations abruptly at 9:30 p.m. when a juror, Joseph Landis, 66, of Shenandoah, reported an upset stomach.

The report was relayed to Judge Charles W. Staudenmeier, who ordered the panel locked up in a hotel for the night and measures taken for the care of Landis so that he would be able to rejoin the jury today.

Miss Reis, 32, a shapely brunette, is accused of hiring burglars to crack the safe of coal magnate John B. Rich Aug. 7, 1959, then taking about $25,000 of the money to complete purchase of the Celebrity Room night club in Philadelphia. Rich has testified only about $3,500 in cash was taken, the amount listed in the indictment. Three men were convicted in the case last spring. They are free on bail pending motions for new trials.

Work During Day
More of the dual jobholders, contrary to popular belief, work on their extra jobs during daylight hours rather than at night.

Only 34 per cent of the dual jobholders were reported as working mostly at night on their extra job; 42 per cent worked mostly during weekday working hours; and 24 per cent primarily on weekends.

Goldberg had some comments on the agitation from jobless workers during periods of heavy unemployment of "there oughta be a law" banning anyone from holding more than a single job.

"The results of this survey give little support," the secretary said, "to the notion that the unemployment problem could be solved by prohibiting extra jobholding."

Usually Short Hours
"The hours worked on the second jobs are usually very short, and a great many of these jobs—for example those in farming and the professions—would be unsuited to the unemployed or of little interest to them."

Only about 180,000 of the three million dual jobholders worked full time on both jobs. Typically, the total hours worked by the multiple jobholder added up to 50 on both jobs, with 11 hours devoted to the extra job.

Breadth-of-the-Market

Just 1 Tool Among Many

Q) "I have been hearing a lot lately about the breadth-of-the-market index. Just what is this? What is its significance?"—P. P.

A) This subject has certainly leaped into prominence in recent weeks, and I have had a number of questions similar to yours.

The breadth-of-the-market index is just one of many technical indicators used in stock market analysis. Briefly, it represents the relationship between the number of stocks advancing and those declining during any given period. This relationship is figured as a ratio and is usually transferred to charts or graphs for interpretation.

When the index shows a consistently upward trend, the stock market in general appears to be headed for further gains. Conversely, when the index begins to falter, it is a time for caution, since a broad decline may be just around the corner.

Does this short explanation seem to make the stock-market predicting a fairly easy task? I assure you that it is not. Interpretation is the key to breadth-of-the-market analysis, and it is seldom that everyone comes up with the same conclusion.

Properly used, the index can be of great help to the common stock investor. However, it isn't the whole story. No single technical tool is. A careful study of this one combined with a number of others—plus a close watch on the fundamentals—will give you the best results.

Q) "I hold Tennessee Corp. and Varian Associates, each at a small loss. What is your opinion of them?"—J. C.

A) I like both. Tennessee Corp.'s earnings have temporarily slowed down, and the shares have been under selling pressure. However, the outlook here remains bright, and I regard the stock as a good growth holding.

Varian has also sold off, in large part due to the weakness which has been prevalent throughout the entire electronics group. Nevertheless, I regard this correction as only temporary and look for Varian eventually to stage a strong comeback. I would hold the shares in anticipation of better price levels.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Dumb people speed their limit, others limit their speed.

Even when you think you can't miss, you can make money by placing a couple of bets that you will.

OFFICE CAT

The grass next door may look greener, but it's just as hard to cut.

The Rev. George Rector, of Elkins, W. Va., is a Presbyterian minister--Mary K. Horn, Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

Mrs. Jones (to the newspaper which hid her husband)--Those new people down the road seem very devoted.

A rustle of the sheet was all the reply she got, but she was used to that.

Mrs. Jones--Every time he goes out he kisses her, and then he goes on throwing kisses all down the road. Edward, why don't you do that?

Mr. Jones--Me? I don't even know the woman!

Former President Harry S. Truman's favorite poker game was a seven card high-low variant with lowest of 3 hole cards wild. The game came to be known, in his card playing circle, as GOG which stood for Grand Old Game. It was so named by his press secretary, Charles G. Ross, who after a pleasurable night of poker playing, christened it "grand old game."

The reason some women lose their men is that they lack wile power.

Then there was the nudist who was so good hearted, he'd give you the tan right off his back.

Deciding to do something about the fast drivers who were killing her hens, Mrs. Jim

TIZZY

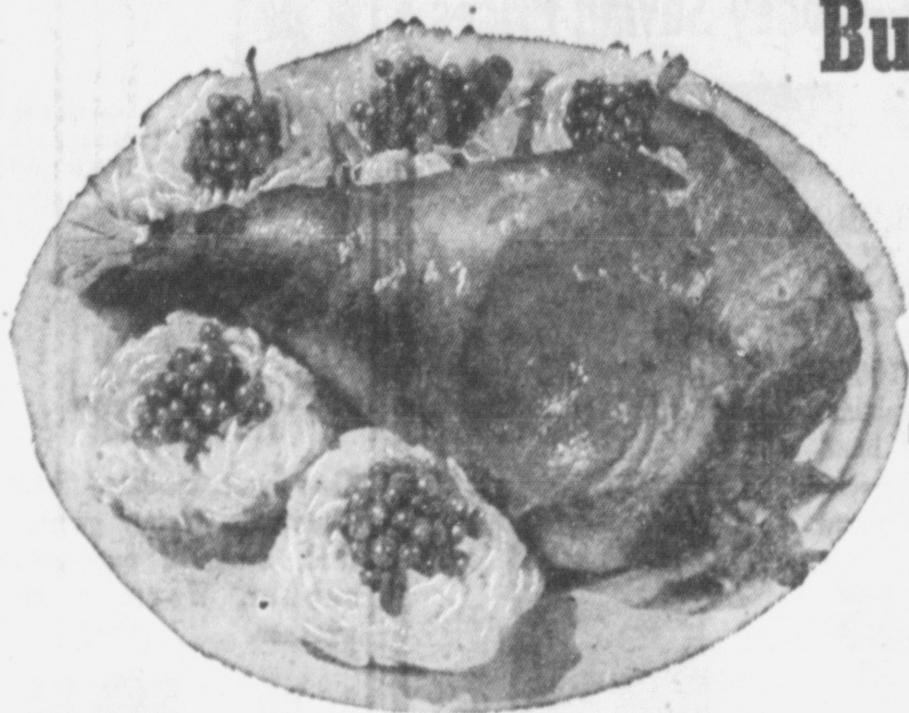

By KATE OSANN

George, of Unionville, Tenn., erected this sign. Please drive slow you are killing chickens. When you kill a hen stop and pay one dollar. It has had the desired effect. Drivers have slowed down just to read the sign, and the chicken death rate has decreased. There is little doubt that women are foolish -- but God made them that way to match men! Dr. Harvey Cushing always got a laugh with his after-dinner story of the actor who turned surgeon. He took out a man's appendix in the operating theatre, and was so gratified by the applause, he took out the patient's tonsils as an encore.

Reuther Moving To Avoid Strike Against Chrysler

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Walter P. Reuther indicates he is trying to wind up labor contract negotiations in the auto industry without striking the little brother in the Big Three automotive family—Chrysler Corp.

The United Auto Workers president said he personally took command of the final round of bargaining with Chrysler.

Reuther disclosed a new bargaining strategy designed to avoid at Chrysler the strikes over local issues that shut down General Motors Corp. for two weeks and Ford Motor Co. for 13 days.

Chrysler and the UAW agreed, Reuther said, to give priority to reaching agreements on working conditions at both the national and local levels.

In negotiations with GM and Ford, agreements first were made on a national economic contract covering wages and extra benefits. But local unions insisted on striking to back up their demands on noneconomic matters.

Reuther said wages and benefits will be taken up last at Chrysler. But he said the UAW will insist that Chrysler accept the wage and benefit pattern established in settlements the union now has with GM, Ford and American Motors Corp.

This gives UAW members an annual wage increase of 2½ per cent or 6 cents an hour, whichever is larger, and a cost-of-living wage increase tied to the government's consumer price index.

The GM, Ford and AMC settlements provide fully company-paid hospital-medical care insurance, higher pension levels and expanded supplemental unemployment compensation benefits. The AMC contract has a profit-sharing plan, but the union is not insisting that other companies follow suit on this.

Predicts Influenza Coming

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The surgeon general of the United States urges immediate anti-influenza shots for persons over 65, expectant mothers and persons suffering from heart disease and other chronic ailments. The official, Luther L. Terry, repeated Tuesday a prediction that an outbreak of influenza will occur in the United States this fall and winter.

Returns Book of Rhymes

TUSALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—The Rev. B. Max Byrd of Newton, Ala., has returned to the University of Alabama library a book which his sister bought at an auction. The book, 26 years overdue, is entitled "Rhymes of a Rolling Stone."

Ballot Goes to Dogs

ATLANTIC BEACH, Fla. (AP)—One absentee ballot wasn't counted in the Atlantic Beach runoff election. Charlie Brown ate it. Charlie Brown is a dachshund owned by Mayor-elect Henry Isaacs. The ballot was voided by election officials Tuesday. Fortunately, no race was decided by one vote.

Leave Kitchen Sink

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP)—Thieves ransacked a newly built home in suburban Miramar and made off with everything but the kitchen sink. They did, however, get the bathroom sink. They also took the oven and range, hot water, water pump and filter system for the swimming pool, a toilet, bathtub and a built-in dressing table.

Groups Say State Should Pay More In School Program

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The State should pay half the cost of elementary and secondary public education and guarantee school-construction bonds, two Long Island groups maintain.

Local school districts now pay 60 per cent of the cost.

Representatives of the Nassau-Suffolk School Boards Association and the Long Island Commission on School Financing made the proposals yesterday to the Diefendorf Committee on School Financing.

The Diefendorf group, which is overhauling the present system of state aid to education, did not take a position on the proposals. It will report to the 1962 Legislature.

Robert Tilove, president of the Long Island commission, proposed the 50-50 split of school costs. He also recommended a state guarantee of construction bonds and permitting counties or groups of school districts to impose sales or income taxes to relieve real-estate taxpayers.

A. Terry Weathers, president of the Nassau-Suffolk Association, said that the finance committee of his group had endorsed the 50-50 state-aid proposal and that the membership was expected to endorse it.

The even split of costs would be for districts with average tax resources. Poorer districts would receive more state aid and richer districts less.

Weathers said that, while he approved the 50-50 plan, the state foundation program should be increased from $389 to $545 per pupil if the present system is kept.

Car 36 Unlike TV Show, Elmira Cops Know Where It Is

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—A skunk happened by as Patrolman Francis P. Ficchi was arresting a man for intoxication.

Ficchi's report read: "The defendant was locked in the cellroom over the objections of the other guests."

"Car 36 had to be abandoned and was parked behind City Hall with all windows open. It will probably be some time before it can be placed in active service."

Livestock Gives Farmer New Woes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Newest farm surplus problems rising to plague producers and federal farm officials are in livestock, relatively free of such troubles for a couple of years.

These problems are appearing just as a little headway is being made to bring crop surpluses under control. Wheat and livestock feed grain production is running below a year ago under the influence of federal programs and bad weather in some wheat areas.

Milk and dairy production is increasing faster than consumption. As a consequence, the Agriculture Department finds it necessary to step up price support ac-

Man Slain After Killing Woman, Wounding Wife

NEW YORK (AP) — An estranged husband fatally shot his mother-in-law and wounded his wife in their family's private hospital for alcoholics Tuesday night.

The husband was killed by a hail of police bullets a short time later.

Police said they faced the gun muzzle of the attacker, Thomas Lewis, 43, a salesman, of Bronxville.

The shooting was in the 50-patient Charles B. Towns Hospital, Central Park West. Mrs. Lewis' mother-in-law, Mrs. Marian Towns, 60, died in St. Luke's Hospital two hours after the shooting.

His wife, Caroline, 39, wounded in the face, was reported in fair condition in a hospital today.

Salinger to Talk

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—Pierre Salinger, press secretary to President Kennedy, will speak on "Freedom of Information" Oct. 28 at Pi Delta Upsilon's annual meeting.

Salinger also will receive the national college honorary journalism society's Medal of Merit. The meeting will be at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Bridge to Canada Is Used by 305,762 Cars

PRESCOTT, Ont. (AP) — The Ogdensburg, N.Y.-Prescott, Ont. international bridge carried 305,762 vehicles in its first year of operation, 129,358 more than crossed by ferry the previous year.

The Ogdensburg Bridge and Port Authority said Tuesday, the first year's traffic was 40 per cent below the number predicted when the bridge was planned.

Rocky's Revival Plan for Industry Lauded by Wilson

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson maintains New York is "the comeback state of the year."

Wilson, in a prepared speech, said the state "had regained favor among businessmen as a site for plant location and expansion," proving that "the program Gov. Rockefeller instituted in 1959 to revive our state's lagging economy, was the right one."

Wilson had prepared the speech for a meeting of the Saratoga County Republican Women's organization last night.

He did not deliver it, but instead spoke of ingredients for good government. He said these were attractive candidates, responsive government and work.

BABES IN THE WOODS—Cynthia Capodestria, Rochester, N.H., tot, hand-feeds her new four-footed friend at the animal forest in York Beach, Maine. Antlers are beginning to sprout from the head of this popcorn-loving baby elk.

Beacon Merchant Gets Jail Term

A Beacon candy store proprietor, who pleaded guilty recently to charges of pool selling and conspiracy, both misdemeanors, was sentenced Tuesday by Dutchess County Judge John R. Schwartz to 30 days in jail and fined $250.

Dante Pierroforte, who operates a store at 259 Main Street, Beacon, was arrested July 13 in a police raid and indicted by a grand jury investigating gambling activities in Beacon.

Assistant District Attorney John Heilman said in court that the defendant had been convicted in 1955 on a charge of being a common gambler.

Pierroforte was credited with 22 days he served in jail pending disposition of the charges.

Billy Gardner to Speak At Babe Ruth Banquet

Annual Event Set Saturday, 7 p.m. at White Eagle Hall

Billy Gardner

Hailed by many as one of the best all-around utility players in the game, Billy Gardner of the champion New York Yankees is scheduled to speak at the annual banquet of the Kingston Fraternal Babe Ruth League, scheduled Saturday, 7 p. m., at the White Eagle Hall, Delaware Ave.

The New London, Conn., resident has seen action with the former New York Giants, Baltimore Orioles, Washington Senators and Minnesota Twins. He was purchased during the summer by the Yankees and filled in when third baseman Clete Boyer and shortstop Tony Kubek were injured.

Gardner just completed his ninth season in the majors. He played with the Giants' championship club in 1954 and this most recent one marked his second World Series.

Tickets for the banquet are available and they may be purchased from committee members Bill Thomas, Frank (Bing) Van-Etten or Don Remus.

Syracuse Preps For Penn State

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The Syracuse football team, with five players sidelined with broken hands, ran a hard scrimmage Tuesday to prepare for the Penn State game Saturday.

Starting quarterback Dave Sarlette was out of action because of a bruised shoulder. The Orange worked with Walt Solfano at the controls. The hand injury hit Captain Dick Easterly, reserve quarterback Bob Lelli, John Paglio, Dick Bowman and Jim Gaskins.

Irish Wield Big Shillelagh, But Spartans Are Selected

By HARRY GRAYSON
Newspaper Enterprise Sports Editor

The Oklahoma story is another striking illustration that the finest of football coaches can't get very far without the horses.

For years Bud Wilkinson was pictured as practically a football deity. The old Minnesota guard and quarterback had an answer to everything. He possessed the brain, imagination and recruiting and organizational ability. He looked like a coach.

But, as in so many other cases, when the kids stopped coming the halo commenced to slip.

It is when you get evenly matched squads in college football that bones crunch. The tremors you feel Oct. 21 will not be earthquakes at all. They will be stirred up by the jarring at Spartan Stadium in East Lansing as Notre Dame attempts to beat Michigan State for the first time in six games and seven years. That's a long time for the Irish to play second fiddle.

There is every evidence the Celts are pretty much for real, too. But having been bitten once by Michigan State, when Michigan was made to look simply horrible, the handicapper doesn't intend to be fooled again. So the pick is Michigan State by a whisker.

NOTRE DAME TROTTED out no fewer than 22 backs in running over Southern California, but Michigan State also has a stockpile of talent. The Spartans are at home. Their defense has been fantastic.

Duffy Daugherty has simplified his multiple defense more than somewhat, making things simpler for the ball handlers. His one problem was solved when Pete Smith developed as a passer with Dick Proebstle not far behind him. The Spartans have more team speed and a slightly bigger and tougher line.

Three engagements will be televised sectionally. In them, I won't consider it an upset if Penn State shades Syracuse in the East. The choice is Alabama over Tennessee in Birmingham and Southern California over California.

Getting back to the Midwest, Purdue and Ohio State, respectively, give Michigan and Northwestern a second straight black eye. Iowa has a bit too much for Wisconsin. Minnesota takes Illinois in stride. Improving Navy should let the air out of Detroit's passing attack.

In the East, Yale bounces back at Cornell, Columbia bags another at Harvard and Holy Cross checks Dartmouth. Princeton outpours Colgate. Villanova keeps rolling at Boston College.

IN THE SOUTH IN A day-night doubleheader in Atlanta, Georgia Tech will handle Auburn and underdog Georgia is picked to come back and take Mississippi State. It's Duke over Clemson, Vanderbilt over Florida, North Carolina State over Wake Forest and North Carolina over South Carolina. Mississippi smacks Tulane and Louisiana State handling Kentucky similarly.

In the Southwest, Texas is too well loaded for an excellent Arkansas side. Rice is too strong and deep for Southern Methodist. Baylor takes Texas Tech much as it pleases. Sonny Gibbs gives Texas Christian an edge over Texas A. and M.

In the Big Eight, Oklahoma loses another to Kansas, Colorado rolls over Kansas State and Missouri's defense is too tight for Iowa State.

In the Rockies, Maryland is too well balanced for the Air Force and Oregon State figures to win from Arizona State.

On the Pacific Coast, Pittsburgh simply has to break into the victory column against UCLA. Washington's home field advantage could be the difference against surprising Stanford.

But it's getting tougher now. Is there a doctor in the house?

Bears Cover A Lot of Ground By Walking in State's Woods

When a black bear decides to take a walk, he really covers ground.

That's the conclusion reached by game researchers in the State Conservation Department after the first four years of a continuing study of bruin's life history.

"One of the bears that we trapped and tagged had been a nuisance at a local garbage dump in the Adirondacks, so we moved him 65 miles away. A year later, he was recovered less than two miles from the original capture point," says C. W. Severinghaus, the Department's big-game investigator.

Several other nuisance bears that had been transferred 40 or 50 miles have returned to the exact point of capture, where they promptly went "back into business" at the same old stand, Severinghaus reports.

Tagged bear returns indicate that males have a larger range than females, and that ranges for both sexes are larger in the fall than in the summer.

The study has also shown that bears are very skillful in locating food, as evidenced by remarkable gains in weight. Two males, recaptured only three weeks after they were tagged, had gained 81 and 92 pounds respectively. Another male, recaptured a year later, had gone from 322 to 562 pounds—a gain of 230 pounds!

"Generally, the males show a weight gain of about 50 pounds a year during their first four or five years," Severinghaus says, "and they nearly always weigh more than females of the same age."

Hunters who bag a tagged bear this fall are requested to cooperate in the research study by sending the ear tags and skull to the Conservation Department, with information as to where and when the kill was made. A reward of $25 will be paid.

Machen Stops London In Fifth Round on TKO

LONDON (AP) — America's Eddie Machen flies home today after a victory that could bring him closer to a shot at Floyd Patterson's world heavyweight boxing championship.

The victim was Britain's Brian London, who was outclassed by Machen in five one-sided rounds Tuesday night and retired from the scheduled 10-rounder complaining his nose felt like it was broken.

"Now I want a fight with Henry Cooper (British champion) to decide who is the No. 1 contender for the world title," the unmarked Machen told reporters after his light exercise in London's indoor Wembley Stadium.

"I am willing to fight Cooper anytime and anywhere. If somebody can arrange the fight, I'll be there."

British promoter Jack Solomons has been negotiating for months to match Cooper against Patterson. Some reports say Patterson may defend his title sometime next year against Cooper, who is in a class by himself among British heavyweights.

London, 27-year-old former Irish champion who is no longer ranked among the world's top ten, set himself up as a punching bag for the 29-year-old Negro from Redding, Calif.

Hunters Are Urged to Heed Rules for Safe Gun Handling

With the small-game season well underway in Upstate New York, Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm today urged hunters to "heed the rules for safe gun handling" when in the field.

Accidents don't just happen, he said, they're caused—in most cases by human carelessness. Last year, there were 143 hunting accidents in the state—15 of them fatal.

"A study of these accidents shows that, as in previous years, carelessness was responsible for a sizeable percentage," Commissioner Wilm said.

Seventy-six hunters injured— or in a few instances, killed—members of their own parties. Fourteen victims were mistaken for game. One deer hunter seated in a blind in a pine tree was shot for a bear by another hunter. (The shooter was using a rifle with telescopic sights.)

Three hunters were injured when they used their guns as clubs to finish off wounded game.

The accident-to-hunting-license ratio in 1960 was 1:6,463, an increase over the previous year's ratio of 1:6,630. In 1958, the best year on record ratio-wise, it was 1:8,735.

"We can reverse this upward trend only if every hunter will heed the well-known rules for safety in the field," Commissioner Wilm said.

The three basic rules, he emphasized are: 1) Treat every gun as if it were loaded, 2) Point your gun in a safe direction 3) Be sure of your target; don't be a "sound" shooter!

Joey Jay Comeback Man in NL

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Jay, who bounced back from three so-so seasons with Milwaukee to become the ace right-hander for the Cincinnati Reds, was named the National League's comeback player-of-the-year for 1961 today.

Jay received 56 of the 151 votes by baseball writers in the annual Associated Press poll. Frank Thomas, the Braves' slugging outfielder, was second with 45. The remainder were scattered among 21 different players. Duke Snider, veteran Los Angeles outfielder, was third with eight votes, and Sandy Koufax, Dodger pitcher, was fourth with six.

Jay, acquired last Dec. 15 in a deal involving shortstop Roy McMillan, lost his first three games the past season. However, he recovered to finish with a 21-10 record as the Reds won their first pennant in 21 years.

In 1960, the 26-year-old bonus player won nine games and lost eight for Milwaukee.

Thomas, former star outfielder for Pittsburgh, regained his old form shortly after moving from the Chicago Cubs to Milwaukee in a May 9 trade for Mel Roach. A .238 batsman with the Cubs in 1960, Thomas finished the 1961 campaign with a .283 average, 27 homers and 73 runs batted in.

Snider was sidelined five weeks with a fractured collarbone early in the season. Yet, he managed to hit 16 homers while compiling a .296 batting mark. The previous year Snider had a .243 average with 14 home runs.

Hornung's Call Blow To Green Bay Packers

Football stars Paul Hornung and Ray Nitschke, both of the powerful Green Bay Packers, and baseball player George Thomas have been added to the growing list of professional athletes recalled to active duty in the Defense Department build-up.

The over-all list, a check revealed today, now totals nearly a score, and indications are many more are still to come.

None of the call-ups, however, hit with the force of the announcement Tuesday that the Packers, defending Western Division champions of the National Football League, probably will be without halfback Hornung and linebacker Nitschke for the second half of the season. Their loss could cost the Packers of Vince Lombardi a chance to repeat as Western champion. Green Bay shares first place now with San Francisco.

Hornung, 25, a former star quarterback at Notre Dame, has won the NFL scoring championship the last two seasons and is well in front this season with 77 points in five games, including a 33-point spurge against Baltimore Oct. 8. Probably the most versatile back in pro football, Hornung is an ace runner, good passer, and is Green Bay's field goal, conversion and kickoff expert.

Nitschke, 24, former Illinois fullback, became a regular with the Packers last season and has been a standout on the defensive platoon this year. The Packers defense has permitted only 51 points—fewest in the 14-team league.

Hornung, who is single, has been ordered by 14th Army Corps headquarters to report to Ft. Riley, Kan., Oct. 30. Nitschke's orders direct him to report to Ft. Lewis, Wash., Nov. 2. The Cleveland Browns' halfback Bobby Mitchell, another former Illinois player, was recalled to active duty Monday, effective Nov. 2.

GOES TO YANKS — Robin Roberts, longtime hurling mainstay of the Philadelphia Phillies, is shown in Philadelphia after it was disclosed that he had been sold by the Phillies to the New York Yankees for an undisclosed sum. Robin won 234 games for the Phillies during his 14 years with the club. (AP Wirephoto)

Fullmer to Fight Paret for Title

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP) — NBA middleweight boxing champion Gene Fullmer switched today from training for a deer hunt to training for defense of his title against Benny (Kid) Paret.

Matchmaker Mel Greb of Las Vegas, Nev., announced Tuesday night he had signed Fullmer and Paret, the welterweight champion, for an NBA middleweight championship fight in Las Vegas Dec. 4.

Fullmer told The Associated Press he'd seen Paret fight a couple of times on television. "He's a real busy fighter, fast and has good combinations. It'll be a rough fight."

Gene, the Morn' mauler, said he began training last week for the deer season which opens in Utah this Saturday. "I knew I couldn't make it up those hills after that deer."

Now he'll get in shape to stalk Paret in his seventh defense of the National Boxing Association crown he won by knocking out Carmen Basilio in 1958.

Johnstown Team To Move to York For 1962 Season

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—The Johnstown franchise of the Eastern Baseball League will be transferred to York for the 1962 season, the league's headquarters office announced today.

League President Rankin Johnson said the team would remain a farm club of the Boston Red Sox and be operated by Joe Buzas of Alpha, N.J.

After operating in Allentown for several years, Buzas took his franchise to Johnstown for the 1961 season.

York will be returning to the league after an absence of two years. The St. Louis Cardinals operated the York club for two seasons, 1958-59.

Johnson said it was hoped to start the new season with eight clubs. The other five clubs from the past season are Williamsport, Lancaster, Reading, Binghamton, N.Y., and Springfield, Mass.

Johnson said four cities had shown interest and he hoped to pick up the other two entries from among them. They are: Allentown, Elmira, N.Y., Hagerstown, Md., and New Haven, Conn.

Georgia Tech Guard Gets Honored as Lineman of Week

By TED MEIER

Dave Watson, a guard, played the best game of his college football career at Georgia Tech against Duke last Saturday. Today he was named the lineman of the week by The Associated Press as a reward for his sterling play that played a major part in knocking Duke from the unbeaten list.

It was the 14th consecutive game Watson, a 211-pound junior from Eufula, Ala., started for the Yellow Jackets, and he can be proud to put the clippings of it in his scrapbook.

Bobby Dodd, Georgia Tech coach, backed up the sports writers and broadcasters who picked Watson in the weekly AP poll.

"He played his greatest game for Tech," Dodd said. "He made a lot of tackles and his recovery of a fumble led to our third touchdown (in a 21-0 victory) over a fine Duke team."

Films of the game showed Watson making 10 solo tackles and numerous assists. He was graded by the Tech coaches as 90 percent in blocking, a rare performance. Even more rare, he received a perfect mark on defense. He broke through and threw Duke backs for losses to halt the Blue Devils on the only two occasions they reached Tech territory.

Pat Holmes, Texas Tech guard, drew high praise for his performance against Texas Christian. He made tackles all over the field. "He stopped their fullback all night," said Tech Coach, J. T. King. TCU never got beyond Tech's 48-yard-line.

Wynn Has Good Report On Ailing Right Arm

CHICAGO (AP)—Early Wynn, the patriarch of the Chicago White Sox pitching staff, still may hit baseball's charmed mark of 300 victories next season.

Wynn, 41, had his ailing pitching arm checked by club doctors this week. They found the swelling in his right elbow almost disappeared, and Wynn was able to straighten out his arm, something he was unable to do most of last season.

The doctors said it appeared Wynn can resume pitching next spring. He now owns 292 major league victories, needing 8 to reach the 300 mark.

Yankees to Get $7,389.11 Each

NEW YORK (AP)—The victorious New York Yankees each received $7,389.11 for their World Series victory over the Cincinnati Reds, but they came out about $1,100 poorer than the Pittsburgh Pirates, who won in 1960.

The Pirates came out with $8,419.94 each last year because their home park, Forbes Field, had a bigger capacity than Cincinnati's Crosley Field.

The share for each Yankee was the lowest since 1962, Commissioner Ford Frick announced Tuesday. The Yanks of 1962 each banked $3,982.65 after beating Brooklyn in the series. The Yanks voted 36 1-6 shares, plus cash awards of $4,500. This included 33 full shares along with seven fractional slices.

Black Hawks Top Boston Club, 5-3

CHICAGO (AP)—The rswd CHICAGO (AP)—The world champion Chicago Black Hawks finally broke into the victory column Tuesday night after a pair of ties, but Coach Rudy Pilous and his players were far from satisfied with their 5-3 triumph over Boston.

"I know we play New York Thursday night," said Pilous in the dressing room, "but we're going to practice tomorrow anyway. Maybe we can tighten up the club a bit."

Except for a short span of one minute and 20 seconds in the second period when they scored three quick goals, the Hawks were a far cry from the team which won the Stanley Cup last season.

The Montreal Canadiens will be at New York tonight and games Thursday night and New York at Chicago and Boston at Detroit.

Texas Is Leading In Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP)—Texas, Notre Dame, Detroit and West Texas State are the team leaders in offense and scoring among college football teams this week.

Statistics from the NCAA Service Bureau today show Texas the total offense leader with an average of 446 yards in four games, rebounding Notre Dame leading in rushing offense with a per-game average of 320.3. Detroit's passing leader with 211.7 yards per game, and West Texas State the scoring pace-setter with 156 points in four games, a whopping 39-point average.

Rookie Kilmer Gains Ground In Weekly NFL Statistics

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung of Green Bay and Milt Plum of the Cleveland Browns held their places atop the National Football League's principal offense tabulations last week. But the glamor boy of ground-gaining was rookie Bill Kilmer of the San Francisco 49ers.

Kilmer, national college leader in total offense last season and most valuable player in the All-Star game at Chicago last summer, found himself as a pro runner when he was installed as one of the three rotating quarterbacks in San Francisco's shotgun offense.

Eight Touchdowns

In his last three games, Kilmer has run for 334 yards and has scored eight touchdowns. Latest NFL individual offense figures show him as the No. 4 rusher

Howard C. St. John, vice president of Kiwanis, is in charge of the presentation, with Bill Murray acting as director of the show.

Koenig Proposes County Treasurer Office Changes

Joseph J. Koenig, Democratic candidate for Ulster County treasurer, at a meeting of the Shandaken Democratic Club on Tuesday night, stressed the importance of this county office and the role of the county treasurer relating to county and state matters.

Koenig pointed out that the county treasurer, the chief fiscal officer of the county, is the custodian of all county funds, and handles approximately 13 million dollars yearly. This being the case, and since a good county treasurer must be a good financial administrator and not merely a name-signing office holder, Koenig went into his background of lifelong business administration. He pointed out his role as county treasurer in 1958 when appointed to that office by Governor Harriman.

Koenig then went into detail explaining that there were illegal and improper practices being employed in the County Treasurer's office for years under previous Republican administrations—Money in banks are not fully protected by collateral as required by law, money in banks in excess of the amount authorized by the Board of Supervisors. He then said, he brought about proper adjustment and changes in that office in 1958 to comply with the law.

Koenig then expressed, as he did during the campaign of 1958, that it was his belief that the people of the County of Ulster should receive interest on county funds deposited in banks anywhere in the County of Ulster.

In closing, the Democratic candidate for county treasurer stated that on October 14, 1958, when he was serving as county treasurer he appeared before the Board of Supervisors of Ulster County and presented to them a recommendation that a committee be appointed to take up with the county treasurer each and every month, the status of all county funds deposited in county banks. He stressed the importance of this action because by this joint action by a committee of the Board of Supervisors and the county treasurer, there would then be a closer check on the amounts deposited in the various banks throughout the county. Three years have passed since this recommendation was placed before the Board of Supervisors, Koenig said, and to date, nothing has been done.

The Democratic candidate for county treasurer then predicted that nothing would be done as long as the Republican party has control of the Board of Supervisors. However, Koenig said, his full support and personal promise is given that if the Democrats gain control of the Board of Supervisors, immediate action would be taken to place this recommendation into effect.

8 Families File City Water Claim At Poughkeepsie

Contending that their wells were drained as the result of City of Poughkeepsie construction and pumping operations last April, eight Town of Poughkeepsie families have petitioned the Common Council for $1,000 each in damages.

The town residents contend they were forced to hook up with the city water system because the city deprived them of well water.

The city installed a temporary above ground water line to three of the families and the other five families have makeshift connections with neighbors.

The Council referred the matter to City Manager Kenneth E. Pearce to decide if it should be considered a petition or a claim.

Blind Vets Told Of N.Y. Annuity

Families and guardians of blind area veterans were reminded today by Charles L. Culver, N.Y.S. veteran counselor of the N.Y.S. Division of Veterans Affairs and John B. Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency, that the State of New York through the Division of Veterans Affairs, pays a $300 yearly annuity to those blind veterans that meet the New York State standard for blindness.

Also, the veteran must have been a resident of the State of New York at the time of entry on active duty and a resident at the time the application is submitted.

The veterans officials pointed out that further information on Blind Annuity and all other veterans' benefits may be obtained by visiting their New York State Division of Veterans Affairs office and the Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency at 32 Main Street.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The answer was hard by Sunset Boulevard.

I crunched my way up the gravelled driveway to the double doors, each with a small glass peephole. A sign said rather forbiddingly, "Unexpected guests must use telephone."

Was I unexpected? No, I had made a date with the great lady. I summoned enough courage to ring the bell.

"Who's there?" demanded a voice.

I announced myself and was prompted, "Closer to the speaker." I repeated my identification and was answered with a metallic click.

Wait Is Uneasy

The door swung open. A handsome young butler ushered me into the sitting room, which was decorated with old and new masters—the real things.

"Miss Swanson will be down presently," the butler announced. The uneasy wait. Her heels could be heard on the marble floor. Then she swept in, slim and surprisingly small, wearing a broad-based long-sleeved suit, her arms a-clank with metallic jewelry.

Her skin was smooth and flawless. There was scant gray in her shiny hair, atop which perched her spectacles.

"Let's go in the den, where it's more comfortable," said Gloria Swanson after ordering vodka on the rocks from the butler. We went to the den, which was dominated by a full-length portrait of the actress.

Just Like Movie

As we began to talk, the lights went out. The butler entered with lighted candles and said the trouble was being attended to. Miss Swanson reclined on the couch and continued talking in the candlelight, while I felt for all the world as if I were in the second reel of "Sunset Boulevard."

Miss Swanson soon brought me back to reality. The house was not hers but that of a family she had known for years. And she is not Norma Desmond, the silent star she played in "Sunset Boulevard."

"My God, how the legend hangs on!" she declared. "Just a few weeks ago I had to get tough with an interviewer on BBC in England. He kept trying to link me up with the picture."

"I finally told him, 'No, I don't have a body floating in my swimming pool. I don't even have a swimming pool. I don't live in the past. I am concerned only with the present and the future.'"

Miss Swanson was here after a seven-week European trip, partly to view the new Paris fashions for her dress business, partly to show her mother the Continent. She's working this week in a drama for ABC's "Straightaway."

"Guess what I am playing," she said. "That's right—an actress. Isn't it frightful, the type-casting in this town?"

Sentenced to Jail

A 28-year-old Highland migrant farm laborer was sentenced Tuesday to 60 days in the Dutchess County jail after pleading guilty before Poughkeepsie City Judge Charles O'Donnell to third degree assault. Sanders Thomas was accused by Poughkeepsie police of molesting three girls last Wednesday on Mill Street, that city.

X-15 Establishes New Speed Mark, Pilot Slows Craft

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — In a searing burst that turned its wings white hot, the X15 rocket plane soared to a speed record of 3,920 miles an hour—about twice the speed of a rifle bullet.

The experimental craft, designed for a top speed of 4,000 m.p.h., flew so swiftly Tuesday—about six times the speed of sound—that pilot Joe Walker had to put the flaps down to slow the needle-nosed plane.

The previous aircraft speed record was 3,647 m.p.h. set last week in an X15 by Air Force Maj. Bob White.

Johnson Visits Ailing Rayburn

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson spent an hour with Sam Rayburn Tuesday and later told newsmen that "it was sad to see him so sick."

The veteran House speaker, who has been at Baylor Hospital since Oct. 2, is suffering from incurable cancer.

Medical bulletins Tuesday said Rayburn, 79, was resting comfortably but that his condition remained serious.

Teenager Faces Murder, First; Two Friends Shot

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Charles Warner, who admitted to police he killed two former friends because they "picked on" him, is charged with first-degree murder.

Dist. Atty. Joseph A. Mogavero Jr., placed the charge against Warner, 16, Tuesday night.

Warner was reported in fair condition in a Utica hospital, where he is recovering from three bullet wounds. State Police said they shot the youth as he fled by automobile from an Adirondack hideout.

Mogavero said the charge filed was in the fatal shooting Saturday of Howard Lindstad, 17, the district attorney would not say whether charges would be placed against Warner in the death of Philip Lindroth, also 17.

Police said Warner told them Lindstad and Lindroth had been picking on him. "We had a fight a long time ago," he said.

The three had been inseparable companions until about a year ago, when Warner left the group. All three were pupils at Cooperstown Central School.

Police said Warner fired several shots at Lindroth and Lindstad in an alley off Main Street in Cooperstown, which claims to be the birthplace of baseball.

The shooting occurred between two banks and near Abner Doubleday Field and the Baseball Hall of Fame.

After the shooting, Warner drove to a cabin in the Adirondacks. State Troopers found him the next day.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department said today its quiet campaign against obscenity in the mails has shown an increase in arrests and convictions so far this year.

This represents a 21 per cent increase over the same period last year, he said.

There were 69 convictions obtained as a result of postal investigations, an increase of 16.9 per cent over last year's total for the period.

Peiping Hails Albania Ties Before K Blast

TOKYO (AP) — The Chinese Communists today distributed a speech hailing their "unbreakable" friendship for Albania less than 24 hours after Soviet Premier Khrushchev had criticized the little east European nation for its espousal of Stalinism.

The speech Monday by Mrs. Yang Yun-yu, Chinese delegate to the fifth Congress of the Women's Union of Albania in Tirana, declared: "The friendship between the Chinese and Albanian peoples based on the principles of Marxism-Leninism and proletarian internationalism is unbreakable and no force can destroy it."

The official New China News Agency and Peiping Radio, either by design or because of a communications delay, reported the speech only today.

Cohen Is First Ever to Leave Alcatraz Prison

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mickey Cohen is free on bail today, the first inmate of the federal Government's Alcatraz Island prison in San Francisco Bay ever to be so released.

The Los Angeles onetime gambler was freed Tuesday on a $100,000 bond after U.S. Supreme Court Justice William C. Douglas ruled Cohen had the right to post bail.

Cohen, 47, was sent to Alcatraz after a conviction of evading $200,000 in federal income taxes. He had served 82 days of a 15-year sentence.

Town Tentative Budget Up 42 PC

The New Paltz Town Board at a recent budget meeting adopted the preliminary budget for the coming year which will be 42 per cent higher than the amount raised in 1961. A public hearing on the budget will be held Wednesday, Nov. 8 at the town hall. The Town Board will hold a regular meeting following the hearing at which time the final adoption of the budget will take place.

This budget means that there will be an increase for 1962 in the amount of some $33,600, but Supervisor Peter Savago, explained that the expected tax rate would probably remain about the same as for 1961, which was $38.55 per thousand, that the 42 per cent increase would be offset by the increased assessed valuation in the town.

Among the increases in the town budget for next year will be a raise of $1,000 to the library fund making it an appropriation of $3,000. This is to help defray the salary of the public librarian. Another increase would be the increase of $500 in the salary of the highway superintendent. The war emergency fund will be raised from $300 to $1,000 in view of the current world conditions. Highway laborer's salaries will be raised 15 cents an hour, making a total yearly increase of $2,000. The largest single increase in the budget will be in the machinery fund which comes under the highway fund, for the board has approved the purchase of a bulldozer at a purchase price of $24,500. This includes a sanding machine also.

Another large increase will be in the fire district fund. An increase of $3,300 in the contract with the village for fire protection, for the village plans to purchase two new fire trucks in 1962 at a cost of $32,000.

The board also has scheduled a payment of $12,000 in bonds for the new town hall which was built last year.

There are many and varied small increases as well as a few minor decreases such as constables phone and rentals for town board meeting room.

Most of the town officials' salaries will remain as last year with the exception of the highway superintendent and a $500 increase in the town attorney fee. There will be little change in the health fund which includes rent of the health office, compensation to the registrar of vital statistics, and physician's fees.

Present at the meeting in addition to the town board were Isaac Pole, highway superintendent, Andrew Barone, John Schreiber, Mrs. Ruth Heidegger and Mrs. Helen Redfern.

Keating Calling For U. S. Policy Of Anticipation

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., has suggested that the Kennedy administration adopt a long-term global policy to combat international communism.

Speaking Tuesday night at a dinner of the Chemung County Republican Committee, Keating said the administration's present policy is "piece-meal."

He called for a policy "that will not let us open to constant surprise, but that will anticipate surprises."

1961 Corn Support Remains at $1.32

The final support rate for 1961-crop corn in Ulster County will remain at $1.32 per bushel, E. M. Wood, chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced. This is the same as the minimum rate set in advance of the season to help growers plan their operations.

Legislation authorizing the feed grain program for the 1961 crop provided that support for corn could be set at a level not less than 65 per cent of parity. Since the national support price of $1.20 per bushel set in advance of the season is 74.1 per cent of the October corn parity price—above the minimum legal level, no change is being made in the 1961-crop corn support as previously announced.

The chairman explained that farmers who cooperated in the 1961 feed grain program are eligible for price support on their share of the farm's "normal" production of corn. Producers who have not been notified of the normal production figure for their farms may obtain the figure from the County ASC Committee.

Wood pointed out that favorable weather throughout much of the corn-producing area is pushing corn yields to record levels, which may prompt farmers to re-examine their storage situation for this year's crop. Help in obtaining adequate farm-storage facilities is available to producers through the government's farm facility loan program, under which producers may borrow up to 95 per cent of the cost of farm storage structures costing 40 cents per bushel or less.

For further information farmers may contact the ASCS Office, 54 John Street, Kingston, N. Y.

Miss Jeannette Yerkins and Miss Terry Spence spent the weekend at Lake Minnewaska where they served on the staff.

The prayer meeting and fellowship service was held at the Wawarsing chapel last Wednesday evening. It was reported that a new altar kneeling pad had been purchased and used for the Rally Day services.

Sunday the trustees of the Wawarsing chapel thanked the congregation and the community at large for the generous response to a letter that was sent out in the mail. Over $100 was paid out this month for insurance and repairs. Contributions continue to arrive and a report in full will be made later. Postmaster Douglas Booth serves as secretary-treasurer to the board of trustees.

Kingston C of C Endorses College, 4 Amendments

The establishment of a two-year community college in Ulster County has been unanimously endorsed by Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce and favorable action recommended on proposed constitutional amendments 1, 2, 4 and 6.

The action was taken by the Chamber board of directors Monday night, Joseph E. O'Connor, president.

Another action taken was the appointment of a special committee to study and report on recommendations for the establishment of a non-profit industrial development corporation.

A comprehensive report of the Chamber's state legislative affairs committee was presented on all seven State Constitutional Amendments to appear on the general election ballot on November 7.

The Chamber endorsed Amendments 1 (Unified Court System); 2 (State Government Reorganization); 4 (Job Development Authority Bonds); 5 (Allow State Debt in Economic Recession) and 7 (Using Forest Preserve Lands for Highway Improvement).

No action was taken on the following: Amendment 3 (Commuter Cars Bond Guarantee); 6 (Dormitory Authority Bond Guarantee); 7 (Using Forest Preserve Lands for Highway Improvement).

Reasons for the action taken will be published later and a brief abstract of each amendment given, the board announced.

The text of the resolution on community college cited the following factors:

It is becoming increasingly difficult for a majority of graduates to obtain further education beyond high school for two major reasons. 1. High cost of college attendance, and 2. Increased restrictions on the enrollment of freshmen.

The educational requirements for practically all jobs are increasing.

A two-year community college located within easy commuting distance of a majority of Ulster County high school graduates would be a big factor in the future development and general welfare of the entire county.

It was resolved that the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce favors the establishment of a two-year community college in Ulster County and urges all qualified voters to study and discuss the establishment of such a college and express their opinion by voting on Local Question "A," November 7.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The trouble with television, they say, is that the producers are having so much trouble getting novel and bright plot ideas.

Well, I watch a lot of TV, and if they really want some fresh ideas never seen on the tube, I've made a list they are perfectly free to take.

A stirring, action-packed saga of the Civil War, with both brothers fighting on the same side.

A series about a quack doctor, dedicated but only to making a big pile of money fast.

A suspense drama about a girl, all alone in a big house on a stormy night. She hears strange noises in the attack, and immediately leaves the house, gets in her car and drives to a police station.

The time for the big showdown comes. The marshal and the gunslinger in the black hat start walking towards each other down the dusty, deserted main street.

And the marshal, drops before he can even get his hand on his six-shooter.

The pretty housewife in the situation comedy spends all day baking the banana cream pie for that dinner with the boss and his wife. And at dinner they all sit down and eat the pie.

The heroine in the daytime serial is sitting quietly in the living room when kindly Dr. John, the family physician, drops in and asks her how she feels. She smiles brightly and responds: "Just dandy, doc, and I don't have a problem in the world."

3 Persons Hurt In Auto Mishap

Three Highland residents were injured Monday afternoon when the car in which they were riding collided on Route 299 at Lily Lake Road, Town of Lloyd, according to state police.

The cars were driven by Miss Ruth Frampton, 21, of Chodokee Lake Road, Highland, a ninth grade teacher at Arlington Junior High School, and Fred Brenner, 45, of Riverside Road, Highland, according to Trooper Harry Foster.

Miss Frampton was taken to St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, and treated for lacerations of the head and a possible fractured nose. Brenner's wife, Marjorie, 41, and son, Jerrold, 15, were treated by a New Paltz physician for minor injuries, troopers said.

Miss Frampton was driving in a westerly direction on Route 299 and Brenner was traveling north on Lily Lake Road when the vehicles collided.

Bronx Driver Is Stricken at Wheel

Gustav Lutz, 61, of the Bronx, was found dead Tuesday in his car parked beside the road on Greene County Route 43 in the hamlet of Acra, Dr. Vincent F. Tuzio of Cairo, coroner's physician, said death was due to a heart attack.

State Police of the Leeds Substation said Lutz apparently had felt an attack coming on because he had pulled off the road and turned off the car's ignition.

Woodside Man Good, Hurt on Saturday

The condition of James McGeon, 50, of 4034 61st Street, Woodside, L. I., is reported as good today at Kingston Hospital where he is under treatment for injuries suffered Saturday morning on the Thruway.

State Trooper Fred Cooper said McGeon told him that his car was cut off by a passing vehicle about nine miles south of Kingston, overturned two or three times and landed upside-down in the center mall. McGeon's wife who was riding with him suffered minor injuries but was not admitted to the hospital.

3 Drivers Fined, Many More Are To Have Hearings

Three drivers, charged with speeding, were fined $10 each in city court Tuesday night, but many more are due for hearing for vehicle and traffic violations as the result of issuance of summonses this week.

Twelve drivers were booked Tuesday for infractions and it was indicated today that more were to receive summonses. Those issued Tuesday were mostly for speeding.

Fined Tuesday night were Jerry Cariffe, 36, of Newburgh; Ronald Slight, 24, of Port St. Louis; and Daniel Peischel, 27, of Bay 1280, High Falls.

A third degree assault charge against James Jackson, 24, of 381 Broadway, was withdrawn.

It was lodged by his wife, Ethel Jackson Oct. 7.

Charge Is Made 'Election Roads' Costing Too Much

Benjamin Schechter, Republican candidate for alderman-at-large, commenting on "the sudden frenzy of road resurfacing activity on main thoroughfares of the city," yesterday charged that "the Radel administration is spending the taxpayers' money foolishly and irresponsibly in a last ditch effort to buy itself another term in City Hall."

"I use the word foolishly," Schechter told an audience of Republican women at the Uptown campaign headquarters, "because John Schwenk long ago showed Mr. Radel how to save the taxpayers of Kingston $200,000 from every $250,000 worth of road the Mayor is now resurfacing."

"We Republicans," Schechter said, "have no qualms about using a good idea, even if it comes from the other party. The only question we ask is, 'will it work and will it be good for the people.'"

"Mayor Radel would have been wise to accept a good Republican idea on road resurfacing," Schechter pointed out, "for the idea John Schwenk proposed came from the Democratic mayor of Binghamton."

"But, instead, Mr. Radel continues to call attention to his stubborn irresponsibility," Schechter declared, "by resurfacing major traffic streets as part of his election campaign, and calling attention to the fact that he is spending our money foolishly and selfishly," Schechter concluded.

Educators Plan Six Meetings on Staff Relations

The first of a series of six meetings on staff relations in an In-Service program for principals, directors and administrators of the Kingston School District (Consolidated) will be held Thursday, Nov. 2, from 2-4 p. m. in the Living Center at George Washington School, Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools, announced today.

The speaker will be Dr. Frederick L. Redefer of New York University and his topic will be "Morale and Staff Relations."

Dr. Soper is arranging for the remainder of the program and expects to have an announcement shortly on further meetings. He will report to the November session of the Board of Education, scheduled for Nov. 2 at 7:30 p. m. on the first meeting of the series. The program had the unanimous approval of the board at its October meeting.

Hearing Adjourned

Hearing of the charge against Joseph Washington, 38, of 236 East Union Street, who was booked for driving while intoxicated after a three-car mishap on Central Broadway Sunday, was adjourned in city court Tuesday night to Oct. 24. Police said the car driven by Washington struck one operated by Victor Anderson, 51, of 812 72nd Street, Brooklyn, and the parked car of Elmer C. Havens, of 123 Greenkill Avenue, became involved. Attorney Bernard A. Feeney Jr., represents Washington. A Kingston Hospital report today said Marie Anderson, 81, of Brooklyn, one of several injured in the accident, was still in serious condition. She suffered head and arm injuries and a possible concussion. Washington is under $100 bail.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A California scientist suggests the United States build up a national food cache so that food enough for two years would be available within easy walking distance of every American in the event of nuclear war.

Dr. Perry R. Stout of the University of California, speaking Tuesday to a component institute of the National Research Council, said a $15-billion emergency food supply should be widely distributed.

Stout said: "It will not be too much to follow the Biblical admonishment that the seven lean years will follow the good. As with the ancient Egyptians, let us take 20 per cent of each year's crop and store it—assuming we can get agricultural production up to such a level."

He added: "In this age of nuclear weapons, the United States is perhaps the most vulnerable of the large nations because of the dependence of her agricultural complex upon industrially supplied fertilizers, fuels and machinery."

Consequently, in case of large-scale nuclear combat with primary targets being our concentrated industrial establishments, agriculture, even though highly dispersed, will become paralyzed immediately."

The agricultural scientist said a "two year survival kit" of food would require: supplies of animal protein, dehydrated and compacted; carbohydrates and fats similarly treated; plus the vitamins necessary for adequate diets. And, "as for our present surplus grains, they must be gotten out of the warehouses, and converted to animal protein."

Lions Welcome 3 New Members at Meeting Tuesday

In recognition of October as Membership Month, three new members were introduced at the meeting of Kingston Lions Club Tuesday. They are Edward Schalk, Richard Fairley and Dr. Franklin Hall.

Guest speaker was Col. Ralph D. Miller of the Salvation Army who is now stationed in New York City where he holds the position of National Evangelist. During 1922 to 1925 Col. Miller, then a captain in the Salvation Army, was assigned to Kingston and it was during his term in Kingston that the Salvation Army hall and gymnasium was built.

Col. Miller, who has spoken to 236 Lions Clubs throughout the United States, brought back many fine memories of the past. He is extremely proud of the many fine ball teams that were sponsored by the Salvation Army and he said he was even more pleased that the boys had a place to utilize their free time instead of loitering on the streets or even getting into trouble.

During his talk Col. Miller told of his "Ideal Lion." This man was a brilliant orator but even more important, he was a sensitive man. Sensitive in respect that he gave from the heart, had recognition for others and helped everyone.

There will be an Inter-Club meeting with the Hurley Lions at Williams Lake Oct. 25. A party for the blind will be held on Nov. 9 and a 20th anniversary past-presidents dinner-dance Nov. 18.

Says Adlai Silent
Zorin told a reporter Tuesday night he had informed several people he would like to meet U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson again on the secretary-general problem but that he had met "only silence" from Stevenson.

Zorin warned that if he heard nothing today, the Soviet delegation would put out a communique charging the United States is not interested in solving the problem.

In the 101-nation Political Committee, the United States assailed the Soviet Union for violating the voluntary ban on nuclear tests and warned that the United Nations would be deluded if it proclaimed a new moratorium that makes no provision for enforcement.

"There can be no moratorium which the Soviets unilaterally and secretly disobey but which they call upon others to accept," U.S. delegate Arthur Dean told the committee.

Zorin countered that the United States had secretly violated the test moratorium by preparing for underground tests which the Americans had broken the three-year test ban. Dean denied this.

Driver Escapes Injury in Mishap While Towing Car

A Kingston motorist got a bad scare Tuesday afternoon when the tow bar connecting his vehicle with another he was towing broke as he traveled on the Thruway near New Paltz. However, despite damage to both cars, he escaped unhurt.

Quintin Ruiz, 29 of 715 Broadway was towing a car owned by Maria Rivera of 327 Broadway toward Kingston at mile marker 79 in the town of New Paltz when the rigid tow bar suddenly gave way. The two vehicles swerved to the east shoulder of the big highway and down an embankment. The Rivera automobile landed on its top, but the Ruiz car remained upright.

Trooper W. M. Cameron of the Kingston Thruway Barracks said Ruiz got a bad scare but apparently was unhurt.

Dutchess Man Is Accused by Jury

A 28-year-old Town of Hyde Park man was indicted Tuesday by a Dutchess County grand jury on charges of possessing burglary tools, a felony.

Karl James Kruger, of East Park, was specifically accused in the indictment of possessing a screw driver and pinch bar on Aug. 25 in the Town of East Fishkill, when he was picked up by state troopers.

The indictment notes that Kruger previously was convicted of a third degree robbery charge in Queens County court and sentenced to five to 10 years at the Elmira Reception Center.

Troopers arrested Kruger and an 18-year-old Hopewell Junction girl after a milk vending machine break-in attempt on Route 52, Brinckerhoff, Town of East Fishkill.
